Miss Juanita Kent, whose marriage will soon take place to Fred J. Steiner of this city, was given a shower at her home at Parkplace Wednesday night by her friends of that place. The table was prettily decorated with white and red roses, and sweet peas of corresponding colors. After the hostess had recovered from the shock the remainder of the evening was devoted to music and games, after which a luncheon and ice cream were served. The guests met at the homes of Mrs. F.
