Jake Stahl's Band of Speed Boys Who Will Stack Up Against Giants In World's Series

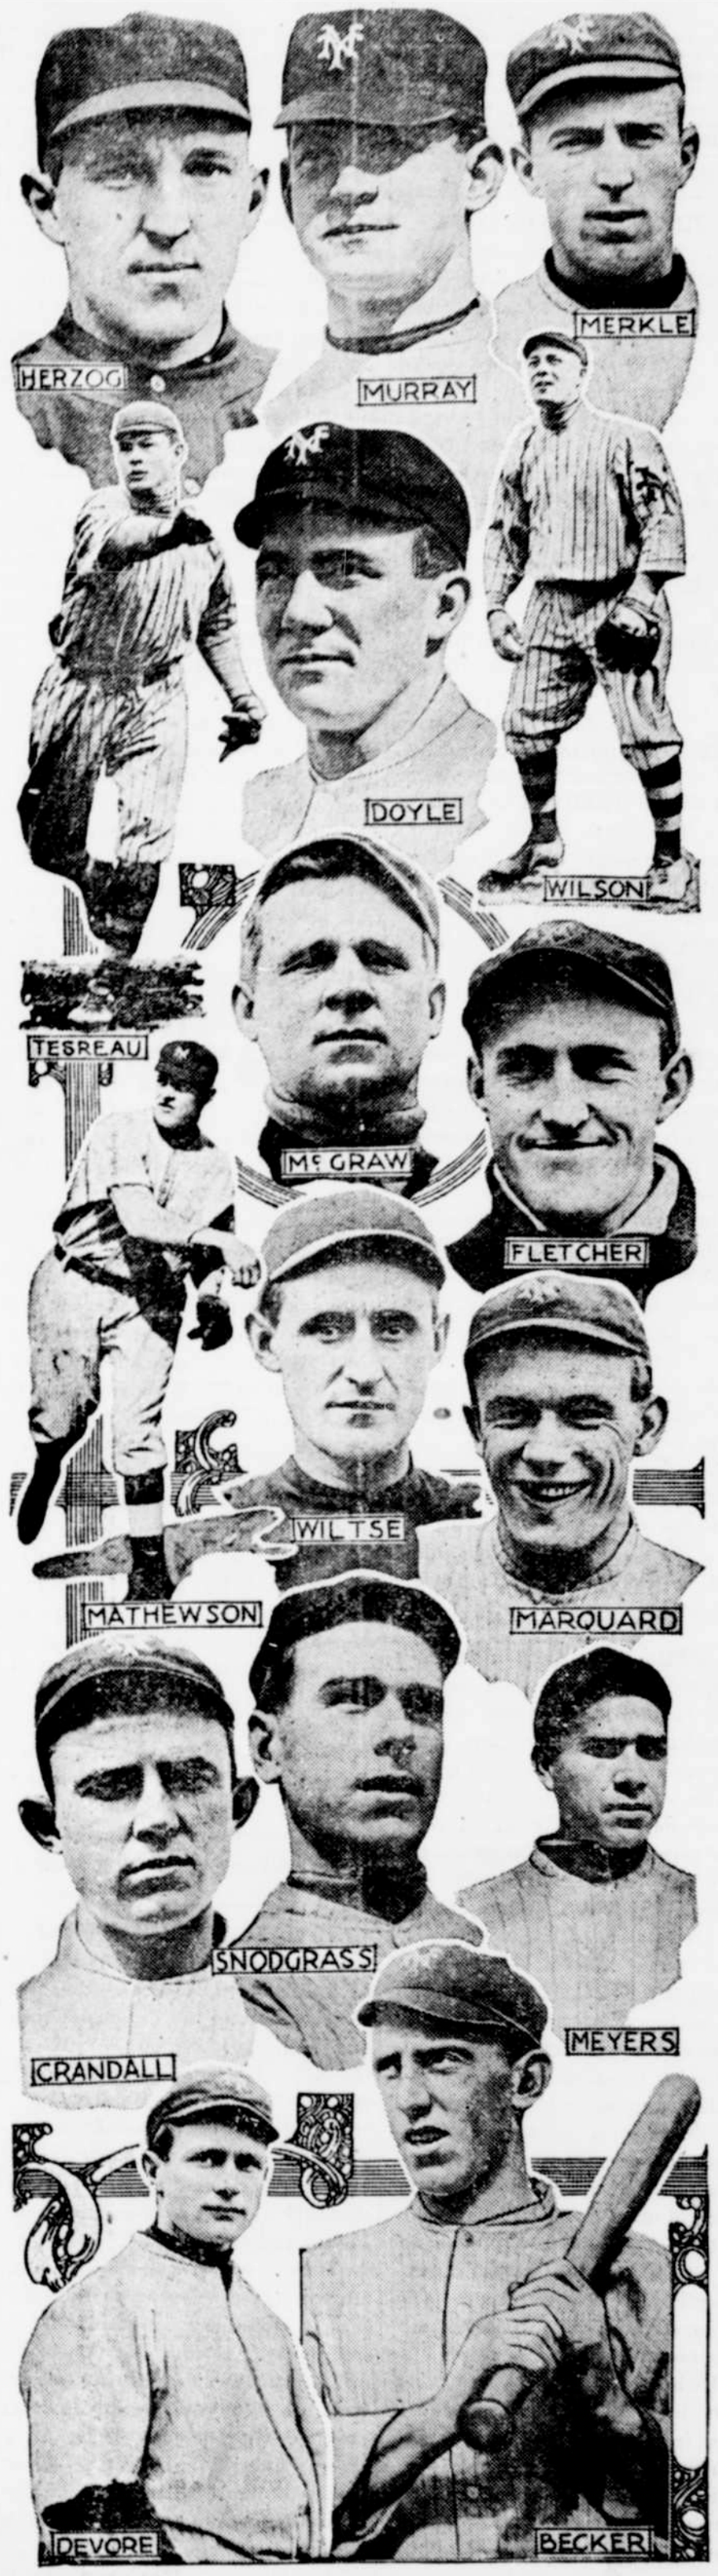
Photos by American Press Association.

The full Boston team is as follows—Catchers, Carrigan, Cady, Nunamaker and Thomas; pitchers, Wood, Collins, Hall, Bedient, Pape, Van Dyke and O'Brien; Stahl, manager and first base; Yerkes, second base; Wagner, shortstop; Gardner, third base; Hooper, left field; Speaker, center field; Lewis, right field; Ball, Engle and Bradley, utility infielders; Hendrickson, utility outfielder.

CONNIE MACK IS AFTER NEW OUTFIELD

After winning two world's championships with an outfield which really never possessed major league class, Connie Mack has finally come to the conclusion that he will have to improve this department of his team if he expects to be a contender in future campaigns. So long as he had Danny Murphy in the game his hitting made up for the shortcomings of the other fielders on the team, but with the injury to Murphy Mack found himself with a great infield, some good pitchers, but a decidedly weak outfield.

Members of the New York Giants Who Will Meet Boston Red Sox In World's Series



Photos by American Press Association.

NEW YORK GROUNDS HARD ON CATCHERS

Ed Sweeney of the Highlanders thinks one catcher is not enough to backstop a game in the New York American league grounds. He wants a second catcher to hover above the stands in a balloon to watch for foul flies. He is needed, Sweeney says, to get them when the wind is whistling down the Hudson. "Some day," says Ed, "I'll be running for a foul on that field and the wind will carry the ball to the center fielder."

Oscar Stanage of Detroit is with Sweeney there. On the first trip east this year Gardner hit a high pop that appeared to be foul. It was foul till it got above the stands and then the wind caught it, landing it near second.

John Heath, Michigan Bar, Calif., writes: "I was afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for nearly six years. Had a very bad spell some time ago and was unable to turn without help. I commenced using Foley's Kidney Pills and can truly say I was relieved at once. I take pleaure in recommending Foley Kidney Pills."
