JENNINGS LODGE

Those interested in the drainage of the acreage on east side met at the R. F. Stover store building Monday night. Mr. Abbott, surveyor of Portland, made an estimate cost and the depth of the drainage ditch at various places. Mr. Howard Smith was appointed acting chairman and G. W. Card as acting secretary. The object of the meeting is to petition the county court for a drainage ditch which would practically be a benefit to all east side residents.

Miss Farnun was a business caller at the county seat Tuesday.

A special school meeting will be held at the school house on Monday evening, March 24th.

The Adult Bible class on Thursday evening was well attended and Luke II was the topic. This community Bible class is under the leadership of C. S. Bergstresser.

Miss Leah McGovern is quite ill at her home in Milwaukie. Mrs. Charles Redmond has been called to her bedside.

Mr. Barnes of Latourelle, and sister, Mrs. Browner of Portland, have been recent visitors at the Lodge.

Of much interest to the Lodge people as well as visitors, is a trip through the greenhouses of Mr. Byron. The sweet peas which are from fifteen to eighteen feet high are full of blooms of the most delicate shades and as Mr. Byron has devoted most of his time to the culture of sweet peas, he has been handsomely rewarded by very large blossoms and he finds a ready market for these choice flowers in Portland. Mr. Byron has devoted a great deal of time to the culture of violets of both varieties and these blossoms are in such demand he makes a trip to Portland every day with flowers.

TWILIGHT

Land is being cleared on many of the farms of this community in a small way. It seems that more land should be cleared and more prosperity shown all over rural Clackamas county but there are a few weighty problems that confronts the farmers Among these are "no marketing system," "lack of capital,' and exhorbitant taxes. The last two items could be overcome by a solution of the first, at least if the farmers were receiving a profitable share of the final selling price of their produce. They no doubt could meet the tax problem with less worry. It is to be hoped that the farmers society of Equity will be the means of solving the financial problems of the farming business.

The Twilight Community Club convened in the hall on last Saturday evening with a large attendance. The program was in charge of C. F. Schmeidecke and was very much enjoyed. Among the numbers was an instrumental solo by Mrs. C. F. Schmeidecke, address by Bert L. Harvey, recitation by J. F. Spiger and music by D. G. Hylton. Miss Elsie Swick read a very ably edited paper that gave the news of Twilight in a very clever way. The meetings of the club will be discontinued until the first Saturday of October except an occassional call meeting for strictly business purposes.

Some of the automobile people who try to use the Pacific Highway on the portion that passes through this section, seem to think that the people of this community are to blame for the depth of the road. No doubt they do not know that we voted a six mill tax last year and raised nearly a thousand dollars and built a piece of road as long as a row of peas in a flower garden. Perhaps they do not know that a committeee called upon the county court and suggested that the road tax paid by those adjacent to this road without a bottom, be used to repair same and do they know that said same committee was turned down with the coolness of ice water and informed that this road, the main road through the state, would not receive a cent of our money or any other money. Do not blame the Twilight people, they have tried.

Charles Schmeidecke has moved to Portland and Mr. Jack has taken possession of the place that he recently purchased.

M. J. Lazelle from this place attended the county Grange convention in Oregon City last Thursday, being a delegate from Warner Grange of New Era.

You judge a man not by what he promises to do, but by what he has done. That is the only true test. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judged by this standard has no superior. People everywhere speak of it in the highest terms of praise. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co., Oregon City, Hubbard and Canby.

EXTRA SESSION TO BEGIN APRIL 10

expected to point out that the extra session is called to revise the tariff alone. Underwood assured him today that the House leaders would be able to confine the attention of Congress to that subject.

Underwood said as he left the White House that the Democratic caucus would decide whether the tariff was to be revised in one bill or each schedule taken up separately.

It was reiterated at the White House, unofficially, that George W. Guthrie, Democratic state chairman for Pennsylvania, and former mayor of Pittsburg, was a likely appointee for a diplomatic post.

It was stated also that word from Richard Olney as to whether he would accept the Ambassadorship to Great Britain was not expected for several days.

President Wilson is giving careful consideration to the appointment of a collector of customs for the port of New York. Dudley Field Malone, a son-in-law of Senator O'Gorman, has been under consideration for some time, and it was said today that if Malone were not appointed he would be offered a position of equal importance. No comment was made at the White House on too frequent mention of the name of John Purrey Mitchel for the collectorship. Mitchel, however, is said to be acceptable to Senator O'Gorman.

That former Senator Gardner, of Maine, and former Governor Burke, of North Dakota, might have posts was learned at the White House today, but it was not said just what positions they would be offered.

In the East room of the White House late in the day, the President planned to receive William Corcoran Fustis, R. T. Brooks and M. I. Weller, of the local inaugural committee, who will present to him a gild inaugural medal. Solicitor-General Bullitt and Samuel Untermeyer, counsel for the House money trust investigating committee, were also to pay their respects. Later in the afternoon, the President and Mrs. Wilson planned to receive a diplomatic corps and their families.
