FORMER WARDEN IS INDICTED BY JURY

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 18.—Frank H. Curtis, former warden of the Oregon penitentiary and now head deputy of the criminal department in Sheriff Word's office, today was twice indicted by the grand jury on charges of blackmailing. P. J. Hayden, proprietor of the Arcade rooming-house, for $25, on the night of January 16. The first indictment alleges that the deputy attempted to extort the amount by threats of arrest and imprisonment. The second charges the act of receiving a bribe of $25 from Hayden on promise to refrain from arresting the proprietor after accusing him of aiding and abetting a crime.

Circuit Judge Morrow, to whom the indictments were reported by the grand jury, did not require bail of the accused deputy. He stated that he had no fear that Curtis would do otherwise than appear in the case at once and that the necessity for bail was not apparent to him. Later he had a talk with Sheriff Word, in which he suggested that Curtis make an appearance and submit himself to the jurisdiction of the court by filing a demurrer or other pleading to the indictments.
