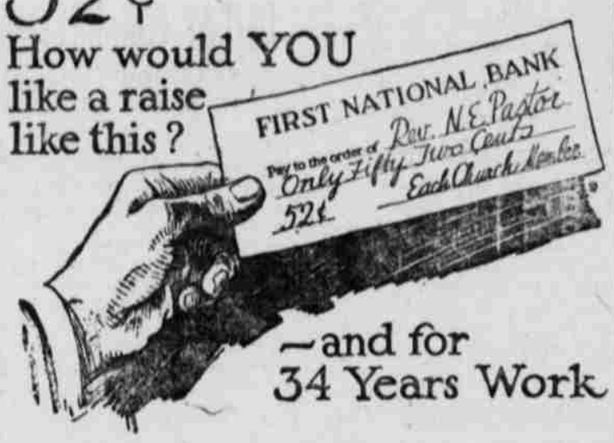
PERSHING IS WILLING

WASHINGTON, April 14.—While General Pershing is not seeking a presidential nomination, he told fellow Nebraskans here tonight at a reception given in his honor by the local Nebraskan society that "no patriotic American" could refuse to serve if called "upon by the people."

52¢
How would YOU like a raise like this?



—and for 34 Years Work

THAT is the kind of increase in salary the minister has received. His living expenses have risen just as fast and as far as yours.

But he is paid on the average just 52 cents more per church member than he was paid 34 years ago.

The Minister Never Fails You

Every officer of the Government with a war message to deliver appealed to the ministers first of all.

But 80% of the ministers receive less income than government economists figure as a minimum for the support of an average family.

When hospitals need money they enlist the support of the ministers—and receive it.

But when sickness visits the minister or the members of his family they must be treated in a charity ward. His pay is less than a day laborer's.

8 out of every 10 ministers receive less than $20 a week—about half the pay of a mechanic.

We Pay Him Half the Wages of a Mechanic

And of these pitifully inadequate salaries, how much do you contribute? Nothing if you are outside the church; an average of less than 3c a day if you are a church member.

All of us share in the benefits of Christian ministers to the community. They marry us; bury us; baptize our children; visit us when we are sick. In their hands is the spiritual training of the youth.

We Are All Profiteers at Their Expense

Part of the Interchurch World program is this—a living wage for every minister of Jesus Christ; an efficient plant, and a chance to do a big man's job.

If you want better preachers, help to pay the preachers better. It's the best investment for your community—and for your children—that you can ever make.

HUERTA TROOPS PREPARING TO MEET INVADERS

AGUA PRIETA, Sonora, April 14.—This border town, the objective of Carranza troops under Colonel Fox in the opening of the campaign to bring Sonora back into the Mexican fold, is being prepared to meet the invaders with force.

Building of trenches and fortifying of vantage points was begun Monday before the first movement of federal troops toward this state was reported. Carranza troops, scheduled to leave Juarez today, will travel 135 miles by train to Casas Grandes and thence by foot over the desert country and mountain passes for 200 miles before they can reach here.

Sonora officials estimate the first battle is still a week distant and this week will be spent in preparation. Troops patrols have been guarding the Sinaloa and Chihuahua frontiers all this week. Special attention will be given to guarding Pulpito troops through which the invading troops must come.

Military officers assert that the pass can be guarded with a small force against a far greater number. The state troops also are reported well equipped with arms and amunition.

Mrs. Thompson Is In Political Ring

PORTLAND, April 14.—Democratic congressional politics, so far as the third district of Multnomah county is concerned, took a decidedly upward jump in dramatic interest Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Alexander Thompson shied her Easter toque into the political ring.

With the slogan "Jail for profiteers, Ratification of Versailles treaty as recommended by President Wilson" as her rallying cry, Mrs. Thompson has entered the arena against her sister candidate, Dr. Esther Lovejoy, who has been the sole and only candidate for several weeks.

Thirty Years Ago Today

Taken from the Oregon City Enterpi'se April 10, 1890.

Stella and Florence Hackett were visiting friends in Oregon City Sunday.

All the churches of the city were beauiifully decorated for Easter last Sunday.

Charlie Williams has purchased a fine roadster, and has put it in the hands of Harry Slopes for training and breaking.

H. L. Kelly is building a new rock wall around his place.

T. A. McBride moved to his own home on the hill last Monday.

F. W. McKechnie, of British Columbia, is spelling Joe Furdom for a season. Mr. McKechnie was advanced train dispatcher for the Canadian Pacific during its construction, and says that he is a good specimen for advanced runner for a pork and bean boarding house.

French Easter Custom—Mr. Meresse and family stopping temporarily at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White in this city and on Easter morning they introduced a French custom to interest the children. Sending the young folks all away, they hid two dozen beautifully colored eggs in various places about the yard, then recailed the children who engaged in a vigorous search for the treasures. It took a good long hunt before some of them were found.

Canby Primaries—A spirited contest developed in the Canby primaries where rival parties waged for mastery with William Knight in the chair. The first ballot was a victory for the party opposed to the chairman, three of their delegates being chosen. The next ballot resulted favorably the other side, the chairman being chosen. The delegation stands: William Knight, D. W. Howard, Andy Kocher and L. D. Shanks.

Death of Mrs. Julius Logus—Mrs. P. M. Antonio, wife of Julius Logus, died at the family home on Sunday, April 6, 1890.

Mrs. Logus came to the United States with her mother in 1853, and six years later came to Oregon, and in 1870 was united in marriage to Julius Logus, of this city, her home being in Oregon City since that time. By her pleasant demeanor and kindly feeling acts she has made many warm friends. Mrs. Logus was a kind, pleasant and helpful friend and neighbor, an affectionate wife and mother, and an exemplary Christian. She is mourned by a large circle of friends, outside of her household, because her life had been much as to inspire the esteem and love of all who knew her.

Mrs. Logus is survived by her husband and three children, Augusta, Sophia and Willie Logus.

Death of Mrs. Marie Barclay.—Maria Barclay, who died April 2, 1890, was the wife of Dr. Forbes Barclay, one of the earliest pioneers of this territory. She was associated with and helped to make the history of the territory, which was the adopted home of her parents, when she was but a little child. She was the daughter of Peter and Catherine Pamburn, and was born in British Columbia in 1826. Her father was a lieutenant in the Canadian Army in 1812, and after was chief factor in the Hudson Bay Company's employ. In 1831 he, with his family came to Oregon and directly afterwards proceeded to Fort Walla Walla, of which post he continued in charge until 1841, when he was killed by a fall, and the family moved to Vancouver. During her life at Fort Walla Walla she was intimately acquainted with all the missionaries of every denomination that visited this coast, and they were all entertained by her father.

When not quite 16 years of age Mrs. Barclay became the bride of Dr. Forbes Barclay, who was prominently identified with the history of Oregon City and the territory and state of Oregon. After residing in Vancouver until 1850 Dr. and Mrs. Barclay came to Oregon City.

Mrs. Barclay was a woman of strong will and sterling integrity, accompanied by a kind disposition and a loving heart. Associated intimately with the people who lived the history of Oregon as a territory and a young state, and possesed of a wonderful memory stored with the facts and associations of pioneer life, she could talk by the hour of those early times. Many facts of interest connected with the early pioneer history are now lost because they were only chronicled on memory's wall, and she is one of the last of the few. Among the early pioneers, she labored zealously, doing so far as she was able the part alloted her in life.

Mrs. Barclay leaves five children, Peter, of San Francisco; Alexander, Kattie and Mrs. Hattie Pratt of this city; Charles Barclay at sea. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Colonel McCracken, of Portland, and Mrs. L. W. Harger, of Chehalem, Wash., besides four brothers in Eastern Oregon and Montana. She leaves none but friends who will long remember her many excellent qualities and kind acts.

Too Much Sweets

Twenty-five cent sugar is in sight. Another jump in price was recorded Wednesday, and sugar is now retailing at 19 and 20 cents, though some of the local retailers did not add the advance to stocks on hands. We are not informed as to what has become of the sugar supply but it is evident that either the production has fallen off, that people are using more sugar, or that the refineries are profiteering. It is stated by the sugar refineries that there is a marked shortage, and in order to decrease consumption the price has been advanced, though it is admitted that sugar can be sold for 10 cents at a profit. This means, of course, that the people who use sugar will be forced to pay around a billion dollars in excess profits for the privilege of decreasing the consumption of sugar.

This is drastic business in which every family is directly concerned, and it is apparent that the federal government has failed in whatever feeble effort it has made to control the sugar situation. It would be far better, perhaps, to return to the days of the food administration, when we stood, hat in hand, and sought permission to purchase five or ten pounds at the market. At least the price was less.

It is within the power of every household to use a minimum quantity of sugar. Many people, during the war, learned to drink tea and coffee without it, or by using a chemical substitute. Once the taste is successfully cultivated, these beverages are better and more pleasing to the palate for the lack of sugar. Most Americans, however, have acquired the sweet-tooth habit and take their sugar in over-doses, and are now up against a real course in self-denial. The canning program, however, fostered by the government, will not be enthusiastically received by the housewives, with sugar around the 25 cent mark.

DEVELOPMENT LEAGUE PLANS BIG MEETING

All the nine measures and amendments to be submitted to the people at the special election May 21 will be discussed pro and con at the monthly meeting of the Clackamas County Development league, which will be held Saturday, May 8, at Molalla. The program committee that was named at Saturday's meeting, consisting of E. E. Brodie, Gordon J. Taylor, W. E. Hassler, L. L. Porter and O. D. Eby, will assign members to take the affirmative and negative sides of each question, in order to bring out comlete information for the enlightenment of those attending The Molalla people will serve a chicken dinner at 12 o'clock and the league will hold its meeting at 1 o'clock.

Proposals to extend the membership the of league into every section of the county were discussed at Saturday's meeting. Copies of the by-laws will be sent to the 31 vice-presidents who will be asked to arrange community meetings for the formation of local organizations to work in conjunction with the parent body. The committee on membership to direct the organization work is composed of O. D. Eby, M. D. Latourette, Franz Kraxberger, E. E. Brodie and H. E. Cross.

The question of the consolidation of school districts in the section of which Canby and Mollalla are the centers is one that came up Saturday for consideration of the league and was referred to the committee on education. Both of these towns are maintaining high schools at a cost that appears to be almost prohibitive and it has been suggested that surrounding school district be consolidated.

The following standing committees of the league have been announced:

Assessment and taxation—Dr. L. A. Morris, M. D. Latourette, L. A. Henderson, H. H. Chindgren, Harrie Morehouse.

Publicity—E. E. Brodie, Hal E. Hoss, W. E. Hassler, Upton H. Gibbs, Walter Taylor.

Education—J. E. Calavan, G. J. Taylor, W. H. Bair.

Good Roads—C. Schubel, Arthur Borland, L. A. Rall, Franz Kraxberger, John R. Cole, William Bratz Frank Millard, H. C. Stephens, John R. Oatfield, Paul Meinig, E. A. Clark.

Livestock—G. B. Dimick, N. E. Smith, A. A. Spangler.

Agriculture—R. G. Scott, Ray Daugherty, George DeBok.

Horticulture—O. E. Freytag, Homer Kruse, P. F. Standish.

Drainage and Irrigation—M. J. Lee, Carl Joehnke, J. W. Smith.

Commission Ready For Paving Bids

SALEM, April 14.—Bids on the grading of 5.3 miles of the Corvallis-Newport highway between Toledo and Newport will be received by the state highway commission for consideration at its next meeting in Portland, April 27. Bids are also being received by the department for the surfacing of 1.82 miles on the Barlow-Aurora section of the Pacific highway.

SHANK FILES CANDIDACY

Fred E. Shank of Damascus, has filed for the Republican nomination for representative in the legislature for the sixteenth district.

LOWDEN LEADS GEN. WOOD BY BIG PLURALITY

CHICAGO, April 14.—Governor Lowden's plurality over General Leonard Wood in yesterday's presidential preference primary tonight stood at 74,813. With 63 out of 102 counties complete and with only 249 precincts out of 5690 in the state missing, Governor Lowden's vote was 234,239 and General Wood's 179,426.

Senator Johnson of California, whose name was written in on the ballots, polled 46,909 votes, of which 40,881 were cast in Cook county. Johnson votes were recorded in 1056 precincts outside of Cook county.

General Wood, the only candidate to make a campaign in the state carried McDonough, Alexander and Pulaski counties, in addition to Cook, but all the other 98 counties went to Governor Lowden.

There were no Democratic candidates on the ticket, but a number of names were written in by a few hundred voters.

HENDERSON IS MAIN TRUNK LINE OF LIVE WIRES

L. A. Henderson, of the Oregon City Abstract Co., was paid a high compliment Tuesday when he was chosen by a unanimous vote as main trunk line of the Live Wires of the Commercial club for the ensuing term. Two nominating committees, each acting independently of the other, placed him on their respective tickets. Ralph C. Parker, manager of Miller-Parker Co., was given the same compliment for sub-trunk, as was Rev. H. G. Edgar, who has re-elected insulation wire. Hal E. Hoss was chosen as transmission wire, Arthur Beattie was guy wire, and A. G. Rae was appointed feed wire. E. E. Brodie was reappointed as program committee. The Wires extended a rising vote of thanks to Ralph L. Shephard, retiring main trunk, for his ceaseless activity during the last six months as head of the organization.

A. A. Price turned the bright lights on the city hall fire department question, and urged that one be divorced from the other because of the urgent necessity of modern fire apparatus, and the Wires went on record as favoring the issuance of bonds to a sufficient amount to cover the initial cost of a fire truck and the submission of a measure at the coming election to authorize an annual tax to maintain a paid fire department and to retire the bonds, which were authorized some time ago. Dr. L. A. Morris, M. D. Latourette, W. A. Huntley and E. E Brodie were named as a committee to present the matter to the council at Wednesday night's meeting. The Wires declined to go on record in opposition to the immediate construction of a city hall, but believed that the two propositions should be kept entirely separate from each other.

FISHERMAN FINED

E. G. Anderson, of Portland, was too anxious to catch fish in the Willamette at Oregon City Sunday and used two outfits. This is contrary to law, which says that only one outfit is allowed each occupant of a boat.

Anderson was arrested by Warden B. L. Jewell and arraigned before Justice Stipp, who fined the man $25.
