Proclamation by the Governor.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, PORTLAND, OREGON, January 6, 1863.

By the President of the United States through Brigadier General George Wright, commanding the Department of the Pacific, and Brigadier General Benjamin Alvord, commanding the District of Oregon, I have been requested to raise six additional companies, required to complete the 1st Regiment of Cavalry, Oregon Volunteers.—They will be needed the coming Spring on the frontiers of this State and Washington Territory, and for expedition against the Snake Indians, who have so long been mercilessly engaged in robbing emigrants and murdering our fellow citizens. I cannot doubt that the citizens of Oregon, who have always responded to any demand for their military services, will in like manner respond to this call; thereby showing their loyalty to the Government, and aiding in chastising marauding bands of Indians which infest our frontiers.

The enlisted men, when mounted, will be supplied with horses by the United States, it being understood that they will be mounted or not, as shall be deemed advisable by the Government.

Propositions to raise a whole company, which will furnish their own horses and horse equipments, may be entertained. The men are in such case entitled to forty cents a day for the use and risk of their horses and horse equipments.

Each company will consist of one hundred enlisted men, and when mustered into the service of the United States to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged.

Recruiting offices will be immediately opened at Portland, Dalles City, and perhaps at other places. By the Governor,

ADDISON C. GIBBS.

CYRUS A. REED, Adjutant General.

☞ "I think Mr. Pearne has done our Church much harm, and I believe you are doing the Church much service by your course in reference to Pearne, and so think most of our people."

Bush credits this utterance to an "active and influential member of the M. E. Church North." If Bush tells the truth, the Methodist Church in Oregon is in a fair way to be blown to smithereens—"hoist by its own petard." We do not know, nor pretend to say, how mean men are to be found inside the Methodist society, but if there are any, "active and influential," or otherwise, who are mean enough to slink into the Bush den, and, under the shelter of anonymous articles, to which they dare not put a name, join and endorse the renegade in his attacks on Pearne, the temple certainly needs the advent of another scourger. If a clique inside the Methodist organization have employed (as Bush more than intimates) him to flog such men as Pearne out of their society, why don't they give their names, that all may be damned to a common and equal infamy. If they have not done so, let them remember that "silence gives consent"—and without some disclaimer, all are liable to be included.

As a personal quarrel, resulting from envy and jealousy, we should not have deemed the matter worth notice—but if there is a fool, or a hypocrite, who finds it necessary for his own selfish purposes to become 'a fellow-worker together with' Bush, yet at the same time continues to disgrace the calling of a Christian, the interest of religion is likely to suffer irreparable injury. Come out, Mr. "Active and influential member"; let's see what your name looks like in print!

SCABBY SHEEP.—An extensive sheep raiser in California says he has an infallible cure for scab on sheep. He makes a thick whitewash of strong brine and lime, which he applies with a brush. In a few days the crust formed by the drying of the whitewash peels off, leaving the skin perfectly healthy. This operation kills the acarus, an insect which burrows under the skin and causes the eruption known as scab It is a cheap remedy, and we believe an effectual one. Tobacco, the old remedy, being high, we advise our farmers to try the whitewash.

ITS TEXT.—The rebel organ at Salem discourses mainly on the following text—"The Union as it was—the 'damphool abolitionists'—and the corruptions of the Lincoln Administration." The bushwhacker follows the programme of the Gribble Hard Shell, who, in dividing his "text" into three parts—"The world, the flesh, and the devil"—said that, "for want of time, he should merely glance at the world, take a touch at the flesh, and hurry on to the devil."

☞ General Robert Anderson has has been ordered to command the cities of Covington and Newport, Kentucky.

☞ All political prisoners have been released from the fortress at Alcatraz Island.

☞ We have received the first number of the Herald of Reform, a new monthly published at Eugene City by Rev. A. C. Edmunds and wife. It is printed in pamphlet form, and bids fair to make a neat appearance. It is devoted to the advancement of Universalism. Terms, $1 per year; twenty-five copies for $20.

Notice.—After this week, we shall strike the names of a large number of subscribers from our books, who are in arrears for several years.—Their accounts are made out, and will be collected as soon as possible. Where we have to collect, the terms on our first page will be rigidly adhered to. The advance in the cost of printing paper has compelled us to this course.

☞ The next meeting of the Clackamas County Association in aid of the Sanitary Commission will be held at the rooms of the Association on Wednesday evening, Jan 14, 1863.

FOUND.—Some weeks since an ambrotype of a young man unknown to us was picked up in the streets of this place. The owner can have it by calling at this office.

☞ We are indebted to A. Holbrook, Esq., for some interesting documents relating to the U. S. Sanitary Commission.

☞ George Smith returns his thanks to his many friends who so kindly remembered him on New Year's day.

HEIMSTREET'S

Inimitable Hair Restorative.

IT IS NOT A DYE.

But restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance, impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford of themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's Inimitable Coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time, being the original Hair Coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of D. S. BARNES, Proprietor New York. SMITH & DAVIS, Portland, Agents.

HARPER'S

PICTORIAL HISTORY

OF

THE GREAT REBELLION

In the United States.

WILL shortly be issued in Numbers, a complete History of the Great Rebellion in the United States. The work has been for many months in course of preparation by a writer every way qualified for the task.

The Introduction will contain a clear and succinct account of the Formation of the Confederacy of the States; the Formation and Adoption of the Constitution of the United States, and the Establishment of the National Government; the origin, development, and progress of the doctrines of Nullification and Secession, and the various phases which they assumed until their final culmination in the Great Rebellion.

The History will comprise a full account, drawn from the most authentic sources, of all the Events of the War; the intrigues of the Southern leaders at home and abroad; the gradual defection of the section; the great Uprising of the People for the maintenance of the National Life and Existence; the rapid creation of an immense Army and Navy; and the Battles by Land and Sea.

The Illustrations will comprise Portraits of all those who have borne a prominent part in the struggle; Maps of the different localities; Plans of the leading actions; Views of every scene of interest, and of the most important Battles.—These illustrations are mostly from drawings taken on the spot by artists deputed for that purpose to accompany every division of our Army and Navy.

Every facility at the command of the Publishers has been employed in the preparation and execution of this work; and they confidently believe that it will form the most reliable and valuable history which can be prepared of the Great Struggle for the American Union.

MODE AND TERMS OF PUBLICATION.

The work will be issued in Numbers, each consisting of 24 pages of the size of "Harpers' Weekly," printed from clear type, upon fine paper, and will probably be completed in about Twenty Numbers.

The Numbers will be issued at intervals of about three weeks.

The price for each Number, which will contain matter equivalent to an ordinary volume, will be fifty cents.

To Canvassers, and Periodical Agents and News Dealers, liberal discounts will be made from the retail price.

Address, J. W. SULLIVAN, News Agent, San Francisco.

CATHARTIC PILLS.

The Family Cathartic Pill is a gentle but active cathartic, which the proprietor has used in his practice more than twenty years.

The profession well know that different cathartics act on different portions of the bowels.

The Family Cathartic Pill has, with due reference to this well established fact, been compounded from a variety of the purest vegetable extracts, which act alike on every part of the alimentary canal, and are good and safe in all cases where a cathartic is needed, such as derangements of the stomach, sleepiness, pains in the back and loins, costiveness, pains and soreness over the whole body, from sudden cold, which frequently, if neglected, end in a long course of fever, loss of appetite, a creeping sensation of cold over the body, restlessness, headache, or weight in the head, all inflammatory diseases, worms in children or adults, rheumatism, a great purifier of the blood, and many diseases to which flesh is heir too numerous to mention in this advertisement.—Dose, 1 to 3.
