SECOND DAY OF STATE FAIR GREAT SUCCESS

Salem, Sept. 16.—Notwithstanding indications of unfavorable weather yesterday, the attendance at the State Fair exceeded that of the same date last year, and every department was traversed by a throng of interested and highly pleased visitors. The present assurance of clear weather, and it is certain that the remaining days of the Fair, Wednesday being Salem day, Thursday Portland day and Friday Agricultural College day, the crowds will tax the capacity of the Fair buildings.

All day yesterday judges were busy awarding premiums in the livestock department, but this work will not be completed until today. The work of judging the dairy exhibits and country exhibits has not been commenced. Among the important awards made today were the grand championships in the Shorthorn and Holstein breeds. W. O. Minor's Golden Goods won the championship among the Shorthorn bulls, and his Unwood Lass the same position among females. John L. Smith, proprietor of the Hazelwood herd, won the Holstein grand championship for his bull, Posh Gerben and cow Wanita Mercedes. The Jersey awards will be made tomorrow.

Yesterday's Races.

California horses again carried off the honors in the second day's racing of the Oregon State Fair meet yesterday, and again straight-heat victories were the rule.

Showing a wonderful burst of speed at the finish of each heat, Emily W., the fast trotting mare owned and driven by F. E. Ward of Los Angeles, California, easily won the Farmer's stake of $1000 for 2:16 trotters, the main event on yesterday's program. The time of the three heats was excellent, and that of the second, 2:12 1-2 was within less than a second of the track record for trotters.

The 2:20 pace furnished another victory for the California contingent and this time it was Salano, the brown gelding owned by C. J. Uhl, of Vacaville, California, that showed his heels to the field. The time made in the race was fast for the 2:20 class, 2:09 1-2 having been hung up in the first heat.
