MONEY SUPPLY EFFECTS.

W M Haynes in Buffalo, N Y, Times.

Rome's downfall was caused by lack of money.

Alison, the English historian, states that no writer of the present day denies that this caused her ruin.

The Romans obtained their gold and silver for coinage from the mines of Greece and Spain. These failed. Her supply of money fell from $1,800,000,000 to about $750,000,000. This ruined her farmers, since they now had to give such great quantities of produce to obtain the old price.

For example: Fifty bushels of wheat sold for a dollar. The laborer, merchant, and manufacturer followed the fate of the farmer. The masses starved and the wealthy grew richer. These conditions of distress continued over Europe till the discovery of America gave a supply of gold and silver for money use, and then camea corresponding prosperity to the amount of currency.

"That the disasters of the Dark Ages were caused by decreasing money and consequent falling prices, * * * and with a diminishing supply of money civilization must languish, and, unless relieved, finally perish."—U S Monetary Commission, March 2, 1877.

The persons who are calling 1899 an "off year" in politics forget that exciting elections of national interest will take place in Ohio, Kentucky, Maryland and Nebraska this year, and contests of less general concern will occur in other states. This is a highly important year in politics, as every body will realize by the crowds which will be around the bulletin boards of the principal newspaper offices all over the country on the night of November 7th.

"While we were having an engagement one day," said an ex-volunteer, "I saw something that made me laugh. A bugler was lying on the ground, snug behind a rock when an officer came along. 'Get to your company, sir,' he shouted, and the bugler got up and ran. Where the laugh comes in is that the officer planted himself in the shelter as soon as the bugler left it."

Niagara Falls are to be illuminated by electricity during the coming Buffalo Exposition. The idea is to erect a series of tall poles on both the American and Canadian sides of the river. On top of them will be placed search lights, and the colors of the lights which will be thrown on the falls will be constantly changed. Arc lights will also be placed in the Cave of the Winds, which will give to the water which falls in front of it a weird phosphorescent color. The current is to be obtained from the falls itself.

The moment the Boers allowed the working of their gold mines isolation and independence of other people were things of the past. They should have oneiliated the new element thus introduced into their former humdrum pastoral lives. They will not bend to the strain; they will be broke.

Put it down on the tablets of your memory that the first frost of the fall of 1899 occured on the morning of October 13. Rather early, but it is no disadvantage as it will kill trashy vegetation, and clear the air of any possible miasma.

Plans have been made for the organization of a body of prominent citizens to build an arch at Washington which shall commemorate the deeds of the American navy since its beginning.

The Atlantic Contracting Company is suing the government for $400,000 for harbor improvement work at Savannah, Ga, and counter suits may be brought against the company.

The only places in the civilized world, outside of Turkey, where you can still buy and hold slaves, are the Sulu islands of the United States of America.

Pimples

Are more than a disfigurement of the skin; they are a handicap to a young man, alike in love and business. The pimply face looks dissipated and both merchant and maiden look askance at the unfortunate fellow whose face is his misfortune. An almost certain cure for pimples and similar disfiguring eruptions is found in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It purifies the blood of the corrupting cause of ordinary eruptive diseases, cleanses the skin and builds up the body with sound wholesome flesh. "Discovery" contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

"I am well pleased with your medicines," writes John A. Calloway, Esq., of No. 318 26th St., Columbus, Ga. "In 1894 I was working at night and I broke out in lumps all over, and when these left the skin peeled off. I took six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and two of Doctor Pierce's Pellets, and I do believe that I am sound and well. I have a good appetite, but before I commenced treatment I had no appetite at all. My eyes were sunken and my face was pale. I had pimples and brown spots on my face. Now these are all gone. I have used many kinds of medicines but received no benefit. Last year I weighed one hundred and thirty-four pounds, and now I weigh one hundred and forty-five. Please accept my thanks. I am so glad I found the right kind of medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Linn's drug store.

HISTORICAL ITEM.—Geo Wilson, of Lexington, Mo., sends the following news item from the Lexington, Mo., "Express," date of October 15, 1844: "A newspaper is to be established at Willamette, in the Oregon Territory, the materials for which are to be shipped at New York to the care of Messrs Ladd & Co., Oahu, Sandwich Islands. The people subscribed $645 for this purpose, and the Hudson Bay Co. increased it to $800."

No Cure, No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills, Malaria and Billiousness. It is as pleasant to take as Lemon Syrup. 50 cents.
