FRUITMEN'S CONVENTION

COMMITTEES NAMED TO ARRANGE FOR ENTERTAINMENT.

Governor Geer and Mayor Rowe Invited to Welcome the Visitors to Portland.

Plans for the entertainment of the members of the Northwest Fruit Growers' Association, which will meet in Portland February 5, 6 and 7, were discussed at a meeting held at 246 Washington street yesterday afternoon. Dr. J. R. Cardwell was elected chairman, H. E. Dosch, secretary, and C. H. Markham, treasurer. It was voted to give the visitors a cordial reception and make arrangements for the convention. The following committees were appointed:

Finance—G. S. Mann, W. H. Chapin and H. E. Dosch.

Entertainment—J. A. Bell, Mark Levy and H. E. Dosch.

Hall, decorations, music and badges—Albert H. Harding, J. A. Bell and H. E. Dosch.

The meeting of the Fruit Growers' Association is important, as members will attend from Washington, Idaho, Montana and British Columbia, as well as a large number from Oregon. Among the speakers will be Mr. Moore, of St. Paul, and his associates representing the Northern Pacific, Professor H. E. Van Deman, ex-United States pomologist, now connected with the Pan-American Exposition, as well as professors from the various United States experimental stations and agricultural colleges and prominent fruit-growers. Governor Geer and Mayor H. S. Rowe have been invited to deliver addresses of welcome, to which responses will be made by Dr. N. G. Blalock, of Walla Walla, president of the association, and E. L. Smith, of Hood River, president of the State Board of Horticulture.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Proposals Invited.

PROPOSALS FOR CLOTHING AND EQUIPage—Depot Quartermaster's Office, 36 New Montgomery st., San Francisco, Cal., January 19, 1901.—Sealed proposals, in triplicate, will be received at this office until 10 o'clock A. M., Friday, February 8, 1901, Pacific standard time, and then opened, for furnishing women's blankets, drab campaign hats, black oak and chrome tanned calfskin shoes, russett shoes, Nainsook undershirts, Nainsook drawers, and Chambray shirts. Quantities to be subject to an increase of 20 per cent, if desired by this department. Ungraded sealed bids, and bids upon samples differing from standards and specifications, will under no circumstances be considered. Proposals for less quantities than advertised for will be entertained. Bids will be opened for the delivery of the same articles at either the San Francisco, Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia depots, but none will be given consideration for inspection or delivery at other points than those named above. Early deliveries are essential. The rate and time of delivery must be stated by bidders in their proposals, and no proposition should be made which they are not positive that they can absolutely fulfill. Preference will be given to articles of domestic production and manufacture, conditions of price and quality being equal (including in the price of foreign production and manufacture the duty thereon), and such preference will be given to articles of American production and manufacture produced on the Pacific Coast, to the extent of the consumption required by the public service there. The United States reserves the right to accept or reject any or all proposals or any part thereof. Information and blanks for proposals will be furnished on application. Envelopes containing proposals will be indorsed "Proposals No. 465," and addressed to MAJOR OSCAR F. LONG, Quartermaster, U. S. Vols., Depot Quartermaster.
