WEDNESDAY - - JULY 11

A NOTABLE SPEECH

By Ex-Senator Stephen D White of California.

Ex-Senator Stephen D White, of California, said, in seconding the nomination of W J Bryan for president:

"Mr chairman and gentlemen of the convention: I arise to second the nomination of the next president of the United States, William Jennings Bryan. I come, though as one not unaccustomed to political conventions. I presided over two national conventions of my party and I affirm that I have never seen displayed more magnificent, splendid and heartfelt enthusiasm than that which controls the membership and audience today. This is not an hour to seek applause. This is not a time when any man should seek to gain for himself fleeting honor by attempting a political speech. We are in the presence of a great national danger. We are in peril of being dominated by those surrounded with power and with the habiliments of plenary authority, and those barriers which have heretofore protected the people, will, unless we intervene, be swept away. Men honest in poverty have become dishonest in wealth, and nations which have lost their rights and their consciences in the presence of glory have wandered from the path of rectitude to threaten our freedom. Today, just after the sounds of the Fourth of July celebrations have ceased, let us candidly, truly and honestly reflect, regardless of political affiliations.

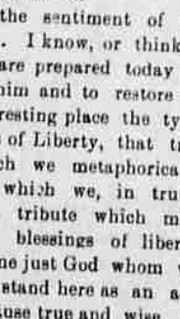
"We are at the parting of the ways. The question of the day is republic or empire. It would do our people good to reflect upon the lessons of the past and read inscriptions upon the sarcophagi which inclose the remains of Martha and George Washington. Take off your hats, my countrymen, and pass by that shrine and recognize the impropriety of the habiliments of empire which you are promised by those in power. Stand by the flag which was raised in virtue and intelligence for freedom and advancement, and dismiss forever those alluring propositions which are suggested to you to induce you from the path of duty and to make you worship the false god—money? Is there aught in this world more valuable than coin? For what was it the fathers fought—that many perished? It was for principle. It was that this government should not only be a government of law, but should bestow the plentitude of its benefits and confine its jurisdiction to its proper sphere.

"I am here to advocate Mr Bryan's nomination. First, because he is an honest man; second, he is a competent man; third, he is a man who loves the constitution and who believes that the constitution follows the flag. He does not credit the republican notion that empire and conquest were within the thoughts of George Washington or Thomas Jefferson. He does not believe in any theory that would abridge legitimate enterprise or hamper the exercise of individual and conscientious, law-abiding judgment. We appeal to you, not with money, not with property, not with promises of empire, not with alluring glories or Oriental triumphs, but we appeal to you as men who wish to transmit unsullied and untarnished to your children that priceless heritage for which men have fought, have bled and have died, and with expiring breath have demanded that you and I should defend. Fellow citizens, delegates, there is no man who more thoroughly represents the thoughts that I have uttered than William Jennings Bryan. He is not unjust; he is just. He is not in favor of destruction, he is in favor of preservation.

"I know the sentiment of my countrymen. I know, or think I know, they are prepared today to stand with him and to restore to its glorious resting place the typified Goddess of Liberty, that true liberty which we metaphorically worship; to which we, in truth, tender that tribute which man owes to the blessings of liberty under that one just God whom we all adore. I stand here as an advocate of a cause true and wise, of a man who is just and fearless, who is not a destroyer of capital or of enterprise, but an enemy of aggression and sordid power; who believes in fostering all legitimate industry; who believes in the open school houses and the happy home; who believes that where the American flag floats there must exist not only freedom, but guaranteed freedom, that freedom which shall not perish from earth. I ask you, without division, to nominate that man for president of the United States and appeal confidently to my countrymen to vindicate your peerless choice."

Fainting Spells

Are peculiar to women. Men rarely faint. Many women are liable to what they term "fainting spells," and this liability is always most marked at the monthly period. This alone is sufficient to connect the "fainting spell" with a deranged or diseased condition of the womanly organs. The use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures irregularity, heals inflammation and ulceration, and stops the drains which weaken the body. It builds up the nervous system, increases the vital powers, and so removes the common causes of faintness in women. There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription;" neither does it contain opium, cocaine, nor any other narcotic.



"It gives me much pleasure," writes Miss Ella Sapp, of Jamestown, Guilford Co., N.C., "to thank Dr. Pierce for the great good received from the use of his 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I had suffered for three years or more at monthly periods. It seemed as though I would die with pain in my back and stomach. I could not stand on my feet without fainting; had given up all hope of ever being cured, when one of my friends insisted upon my trying Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. With but little faith I tried it, and before I had taken half a bottle I felt better, had better appetite and slept better. Now I have taken two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and am happy to say I am entirely cured, and all done in two months' time, when all other medicines had failed to do any good."

Keep the liver healthy by using Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

He Fooled The Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O, after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklin's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on Earth, and the best Salve in the world. 25 cents a box. Sold by W. L. DeLano, Druggist.

"I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in my family with wonderful results. It gives immediate relief, is pleasant to take and is truly the dyspeptic's best friend," says E Hartgering, Overisel, Mich. Digests what you eat. Cannot fail to cure. Vincent & Co., Corner Drug Store.

Paris Fair

The American exhibit at the Paris Exposition will be an open volume, whose lessons of skillfully directed endeavor and unfaltering energy may be read by all. Our Government Building is completed, and no effort has been spared to make it worthy to represent our nation. It was by the same American perseverance that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the famous dyspepsia cure, was first produced. Since that time—fifty years ago—it has never failed to cure constipation, indigestion, biliousness, liver and kidney troubles, and it will make rich red blood. It is an excellent tonic, and is a regulator for the bowels that cannot be equalled. All druggists sell it. Do not be talked into taking something "just as good." There is nothing equal to it.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowles, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by W. L. DeLano, druggist. Guaranteed.

County Premiums.

A letter from W D Wisdom, secretary of the state fair, from Portland under date of July 2 and says:

Please announce that the premium on county exhibit has been increased to $200 on first, $100 on second, $75 on third and $50 on fourth. Hoping to see your county well represented at the fair, I am,

Yours truly,
M D WISDOM, Sec.
