WEATHER BUREAU.

(Daily Report.)

PORTLAND, OREGON, July 20 1900—9:30 a m

Weather forecast for Eugene, Oregon. Fair tonight and tomorrow.

FRIDAY - - JULY 20

The simple Tagalos are learning the ways of the world pretty rapidly. It has just been discovered that they have put considerable bogus money in circulation in Manila. Their counterfeits are one dollar silver coins and five dollar bills.

The people have no use for papers of the character of the New York Times, Sun and Harper's Weekly. Hence such sheets become mortgaged and finally owned by some trust magnate like J Pierpont Morgan. It is at such a time that they bear testimony to how "dangerous" a man is Wm J Bryan, says the La Grande Chronicle.

Wheat is getting near the dollar mark again. Silver stands still, and even corn is worth nearly as much now as an ounce of silver.

Salem Journal: The above is from the Eugene Register of July 14, which in the same issue quotes wheat at 45 cents and it has dropped three cents since. We trust its other political assertions are nearer true than this.

The A. O. U. W. is in session now at Salem. The membership in this state is put down at 9505, an increase of 1396 for the year. The per capita tax is put at $1.80 the average age of members this year is 39.03 years, against 41.94 yerrs last year. There have been 70 deaths during the year, the average age at death being 48¼ years; average duration of membership, 10 years. There are 135 lodges, of which 10 were organized within the last year.

The Chicago Chronicle publishes interviews showing a wide-spread revolt of German-American voters against the republican party in Illinois, Ohio, Indiana and Wisconsin. It asserts that fully three-fourths of citizens of this nationality in the states named will vote for Bryan. As Editor Bohm, of Ohio, puts it, "Imperialism must be settled this election, the money question can wait. I do not see how any German-American can vote for McKinley, Roosevelt and imperialism, and I do not think they will."

Ex-President Harrison has expressed himself on the political situation. He thinks the republicans will win, but that Bryan will receive a heavier vote in the east than he did in 1896. He believes Bryan's chances in Indiana are much better than they were before and he would not be surprised if the state went democratic. The ex-president declares that the republican party has not pursued the right course on the trust question, and that the administration was playing fast and loose with the people in the matter.

C. E. S. Wood, a gold democrat prodigal returning to the fold, made an address to the Portland Bryan ratification. In opening his address he said:

"We are here tonight to say that we approve and ratify and intend to elect to the office of president of the United States a man of character, a man of force, a man of intelligence, a man of education; but, above all, a man who is true to his convictions and does not trim his sails to the caprice of every political breeze. We are here tonight to ratify and to stand upon, as a platform, the Declaration of Independence. If Thomas Jefferson were alive, he would be with us tonight, because it was his hand that penned in ink the declaration, 'All men are created free; governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed.' If George Washington were alive he would be here tonight. He drew his sword that he might proclaim to the world the same immortal thought. If Alexander Hamilton were alive he would be here tonight, for he said, 'The constitution of the United States is not so much its written constitution as is the Declaration of Independence.' If James Madison were here tonight he would be a democrat. He said that these United States are erected in the 13 independent states, with no power or desire for foreign possessions of colonies. If Abraham Lincoln were alive, he would be here tonight, and I do believe his murdered spirit is here with us on this occasion. He said when a man governs himself that is self-government; and when he governs another, that is despotism."

A Young Girl

May be very old in suffering. She is very apt to neglect the earlier symptoms of disease. Often when she takes treatment it is the wrong treatment for her case. Very many young women write to Dr. Pierce and consult him by letter free. All such correspondence is strictly private, and womanly modesty is spared the shock of indelicate examinations, unpleasant questionings and offensive local treatments.

"I suffered with female trouble," writes Miss Agnes McGowne, of 1221 Bank St., Washington, D. C. "I tried various remedies but none seemed to do any permanent good. The doctors said it was the worse case of internal trouble they ever had. I decided to write to Doctor Pierce for help. I received a very encouraging reply and commenced treatment at once. I had not used the 'Favorite Prescription' a week before I began to feel better, and, as I continued, my health gradually improved. It is improving every day and I still continue to take the medicine.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

We call attention to the advertisement of the State Normal School at Monmouth appearing in another column of this issue. The school reports a successful year, with encouraging prospects for the next session. Many teachers are taking the Normal Courses, both for the sake of the professional training, now pretty generally demanded, and also as the best means of preparation for securing the State papers.

Would Not Suffer So Again for Fifty Times Its Price

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my house hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price. G. H. WILSON, Liveryman, Burgettstown, Washington Co, Pa. This remedy is for sale by W. L. DeLano.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends. F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by W. L. DeLano.

Rev. W. E. Sitzer, W. Caton, N. Y. writes, "I had dyspepsia over twenty years, and tried doctors and medicines without benefit.
