WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Light showers have occurred in Oregon, Southwestern Idaho and extreme Northwestern California, and the weather continues cloudy and threatening in all sections east of the Cascade Mountains. It is much cooler in Oregon, Idaho and Southeastern Washington, and the temperatures in this district are from 5 to 16 degrees below normal. The indications are for fair and continued cool weather in the North Pacific States, except in Southern Idaho, where showers are probable. There will be frost early Friday morning in Oregon, Washington and Northern and Western Idaho.

WEATHER FORECASTS.

Forecasts made at Portland for the 28 hours ending at midnight Friday, April 26:

Portland and vicinity—Fair, with slowly rising temperature; northerly winds.

Western Oregon and Western Washington—Fair, with frosts in early morning; warmer during the afternoon and night; northerly winds.

Eastern Oregon, Eastern Washington and Northern Idaho—Fair, with frost in the early morning, followed by warmer during the afternoon and night; westerly winds.

Southern Idaho—Showers and cooler in the east, fair in the west portion, with frosts or freezing temperatures in the early morning; westerly winds.
