THE VERSATILE CONVICTS.

The escaped convicts Tracey and Merrill are having a good time over in the Puget Sound country notwithstanding bloodhounds, sheriff's posses and reward-hunters. A Tacoma dispatch of July 2nd gives this very circumstantial account of the latest exploit of the two men:

A rancher named McCloud, living at Belmore, five miles west of Olympia, rode into town this morning and reported that just after dark last night the fleeing convicts, Tracey and Merrill, entered the house of an old man who lives alone next to McCloud, stripped the old man of his clothing, bound him tightly, took other clothing and all of the provisions in the house, washed and shaved themselves, and departed about 11 o'clock at night.

The old man was found at 7 o'clock this morning. While bound he watched the convicts for two hours, heard parts of their conversation, and knows they are the wanted men.

Such fools ought to get caught and hung for not knowing enough to keep out of the way when there is no necessity for public performances on their part.

A Polish woman died at Chicago yesterday, who had the distinction of having lived in three centuries. She was born in 1799.

Salem Journal: Jack Matthews, as United States Marshal, is a fitting appointment since the organizers got hold of the Republican party.

Wealth is no compensation for ill health. A Chicago millionaire took the short route out of the world yesterday to escape the ills that flesh is heir to.

It is needless to remark that this is not good haying weather, nor fit for picnic celebrations of the Fourth of July. It can be truly said that it puts a damper on patriotic impulses.

A sword duellist got a mark of distinction without risk of life in a duel at Vienna yesterday. He had an ear cut off. That man will shine among comrades of the duello, and they are plentiful and influential in the Austrian capital.

Without the proof is direct and borne out by witnesses of unimpeachable integrity the hanging of a man like August Schieve at St Helens, yesterday, when he stoutly proclaimed his innocence on the scaffold, must make one question if judicial murder has not been committed.

Mayor Williams commences his mayoralty term at Portland with work blocked out that might well make a younger man hesitate—the mayor is near the eighty mark. He would suppress the worst features of the social evil, as seen in Portland's "north end," also stop gambling and regulate saloons.

King Edward of England has not forgotten Mrs Langtry. When her daughter got married the other day there were included in the gifts a jewel and an autograph letter from the king. When his queen first heard that it is probable she felt for a few moments at heart that Edward would make a handsome centerpiece for a royal funeral.

The weather is obstinate, discrediting weather prophets, even the barometer. The generally sure aneroid instrument gave good indications of better weather last evening and early this morning, but still it rained. And there is no particular reason for our bad weather to continue now that the Fourth of July celebrations have been spoiled all over the country.

General Jacob Smith, he of Philippine fame, must have had an excellent pull with the court-martial that considered his case, his famous order "100" to "kill, burn" and make a "howling wilderness" of Samar to the contrary, notwithstanding. Instead of dismissing such a brute from the honorable service, the court finds that he should be cautioned by the reviewing authority, the President, to be more circumspect in the future. That means, we suppose, that if he is caught at it again he may be punished.

"We felt very happy," writes R N Bevill, Old Town, Va, "when Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured our daughter of a bad case of scald head." It delights all who use it for cuts, corns, Burns, Bruises, Boils, ulcers, eruptions—infallible for piles. Only 25c at W L DeLano's drug store.

ANOTHER TEST CASE.

Bright's Disease and Diabetes Are Positively Curable.

While the Fulton Compounds were under examination, one of the investigators went to one of the best known physicians in San Francisco and asked him to name a certain case of Bright's disease for a test. He named C. H. Allen of El Paso, a former conductor of the S. P. Co., as beyond human aid. Eight physicians had declared the case chronic Bright's disease. It was typical—albumen, casts, dropsy, sleeplessness, night sweats and usual weakness, pains and distresses. Patient went on the compound June 8, 1901. We now copy from the written reports.

June 15—Improvement. Skin clearer. Color better. Albumen decreasing. Patient much encouraged.

June 25.—Continued improvement. More ambitious. Albumen diminishing. Night sweats beginning to yield.

July 15.—Not so favorable. Went to the country and began to bloat. Returned and feeling better, though not probably quite so well as last report. A favorable indication is the disappearance of the night sweats.

July 29.—Dropsy again disappearing. Albumen getting less and less.

Aug. 1.—Improvement continues.

Aug. 13.—Patient claims he is nearly well. Continued improvement, and patient recommended for light employment. Double analyses by railroad surgeons in El Paso show as follows:

Spec. Grav	1028
Reaction	Acid
Sugar	None
Albumen	Trace
Exam. for Casts	None

At this writing, January 20, 1902, patient is not yet entirely recovered, but is still on the treatment and getting better continually.

Medical works agree that Bright's Disease and Diabetes are incurable, but 87 per cent. are positively recovering under the Fulton Compounds. (Common forms of kidney complaint and rheumatism offer but short resistance.) Price, $1 for the Bright's Disease and $1.50 for the Diabetic Compound. John J. Fulton Co., 409 Montgomery St., San Francisco, sole compounders. Free tests made for patients. Descriptive pamphlets mailed free.

Virulent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist G W Roberts of Elizabeth, W Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish.
