"IT'S TRACY."

Along the forest paths he went
With air alert and eye intent
His rifle and his manners meant
"I'm Tracy."

When'er he wanted bite to eat
Or cushioned chair to rest his feet
He simply states in accents neat
"I'm Tracy."

In case the whiskers on his face
Grew thick enough to slow his pace
He got shaved in any place
"Did Tracy."

If governor Tracy tried to be
He'd get one vote quick out of me
If I were near enough to see
"Twas Tracy."

When Tracy dies and goes to—well
St Peter ought to give him h—l;
But he'd back up if Tracy'd yell,
"It's me."

CREATING MORE BIG RESERVES.

The farce of setting apart six thousand miles of forest reserves in Oregon is announced without further comment from Washington.

Geological surveys, irrigation schemes, wagon road land grants, lieu land schemes and railroad land grant frauds all lurk behind the forest reserve swindle.

It is today the great breeding ground of civil service, officialism—where the over-production of college graduates is worked off on the people for life jobs.

In Oregon one corporation has taken 400,000 acres of the people's finest timber lands under the guise of forest reserve legislation.

The forest reserves are an European invention, a mild name for a game preserve on which to multiply officialism, with which the land is swarming in every direction.

Like the lice and frogs God sent as a plague on the Egyptians, the multiplication of officialism goes on.

What is worse, the public lands are stolen and sequestered from the thousands who need homes, and who would protect the forest against fires.

The Europeanization of America will not cease until the country is on the verge of a political revolution—if not over the verge.

Oregon is sowing the seed that will result in a bloody harvest all over this nation some day.

RURAL MAILS HURT TRADE.

WASHINGTON, D C, July 29.—The rural mail delivery was hailed with delight when it was first placed into operation, but there promises to develop a lively opposition to its further extension. The country storekeeper declares that it is ruining his business and he is calling upon his Congressman for redress.

Under the old postal regulations the farmer went to the village for his mail, and just so sure as he went he left some money with the storekeeper. Now he remains at home, never going to the village except in cases of necessity, enlisting the services of the mail carrier to do some little chores which he desires.

The New York World gives the public this bit of consolation: "The beef packers are promptly meting out their punishment to the public. The eighty millions of Americans have the temerity to object to being robbed, and the government, after much pressure, brought action which has not yet acted so far as prices are concerned. The packers, accepting this as a piece of impertinence, now proceed to form a new trust that will place them above all the laws against increasing prices. It begins to look as though the poor public had better keep quiet or cease to exist." If the "poor public" does not possess the courage and industry to stand up for its rights against a handful of men who seek to impose upon it, then it would be better for the poor public "to keep quiet or cease to exist." But if the American people shall become thoroughly aroused and shall be persuaded to use the power within their grasp, there is no trust and no coterie of men seeking to thrive upon public misery that can long withstand the determined assault.

Virulent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist G W Roberts of Elizabeth, W Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. Bitters 50c, Salve 25c at W L DeLano's.

To the Public.

Owing to the continuing high prices of all groceries, foodstuff, etc. we are compelled to advance the price of regular dinners to 25 cents, on and after August 1st 1902.
