WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8

That is a terrible state of public conscience in Russia, where mobs killed and wounded Jews, men, women and children to the number of thirty or forty thousand, and until they got tired of the slaughter, no protest being made by the authorities.

Cossacks in a Russian town solved the problem the other day of how to get rid of a crowd. A thousand or so gathered in a hall would not disperse, when the long-headed Cossack in command had the building set afire and burned. In thus dispersing the crowd he burned most of them to death, but what of that? Just now a few Russians more or less make no difference in that land of superstition and bigotry.

Greenleaf Items

Greenleaf, Nov. 8.—A young man working for Frank Parker, while out with the goats the other day, killed two young cougars.

Isaiah Slayter, the upper Lake Creek supervisor, has done good work on the Cape Jennie mountain, making turnout places, which were very much needed.

The people in this neighborhood seems to be very busy butchering nowadays.

It is understood that Sam Brown has a logging contract for one million feet of logs from the mill company of Florence, two dollars to be paid on the bank and balance when logs are delivered in the boom.

Fred Peplot, who recently sold his place at Greenleaf to Mr. Parker and is living in Eugene, is not any better, we are sorry to hear.

There seems to be lots of rustling nowadays for bonds, as the mail lettings are open for bids.

Mr. Almasi has purchased a new mowing machine ready for next year.

Joe Almasi caught two bears the other day in his traps. They were fine ones.

At the school meeting in district No. 91 the special tax did not carry.

Mr. Nichols, of Junction, came in recently and bought up seventy head of cattle from Indian, Deadwood and Lake Creek. They were a nice bunch of cattle.

Clothing Found

Today we found a bundle of old, faded clothes at 459 Willamette street, but after the Eugene Dye Works got through with them they looked as good as new. What's the use of wearing old, faded clothes when we will make them look as good as new for a little money?

Fresh Dill pickles, just in.

SCROFULA AN AWFUL INHERITANCE

While it is true that Scrofula may be acquired under certain conditions, it is usually inherited. Parents who are related by the ties of blood, or who have a consumptive tendency, or family blood taint of any character, are sure to transmit it to their children in the form of Scrofula. Swollen glands, brittle bones, poor digestion, weak eyes, Catarrh, emaciated bodies and general weak constitutions are the principal ways in which the disease is manifested. The blood has been diseased from birth, and being in this condition cannot properly nourish the body and Scrofula is the result. A hereditary disease like this can only be reached, by a constitutional remedy and nothing equals S. S. S. as a cure for it. It cleanses and strengthens the deteriorated blood, drives out all scrofulous and tubercular deposits, and there is a gradual but sure return to health. S. S. S. supplies to the anæmic, lifeless blood the properties necessary to build back to strong, robust health, and does this gently and so thoroughly that no signs of the disease are ever seen in after life. Being purely vegetable S. S. S. is the best remedy for Scrofula; its harmless but healing ingredients enter into the circulation and replace wax-like, bloodless faces with vigorous strength glowing with health. Book with information about Scrofula and medical advice free.

I inherited Scrofula, and about seven years ago suffered intensely from it. Tried every doctor available at great expense, but grew rapidly worse; in fact, had given up all hope of being cured, and can only a dying man will grasp at a straw, I was persuaded by my brother, much against my will, to try S.S.S. After taking six bottles, I felt a wonderful change for the better. I continued to take it for about six months, taking in all about fifteen bottles, which entirely cured me. W. H. STOCKTON.
