INSULTS A WOMAN AND IS FINED $25

W. R. Park, Logger, Accosts Married Woman and Is Given a Beating by Her Husband

A young logger by the name of W. R. Park, employed in the Hound logging camp, was fined $25 by Police Judge Dorris this morning, charged with using insulting language to a woman.

Last night about 9 o'clock young Park accosted Mrs. Henry Kissinger on West Eighth street, near the postoffice, and asked her to take a walk with him. She ran back to her husband, who was going in the opposite direction, having just left her at the postoffice, and told him of the circumstance. Kissinger caught up with the fellow and proceeded to give him a good beating. Chief of Police Farrington heard the disturbance and ran to the scene. He pulled Kissinger off Park and took the latter to jail.

For the past several nights a number of girls and young women have been accosted on the streets by men, and Park may have been one of the guilty parties in those instances.

JUST BREATHE IT.

Hyomei Cures Catarrh in Natural and Rational Way.

No dangerous drugs or alcoholic concoctions are taken into the system when Hyomei is used in the treatment of catarrh. Breathed through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, the balsamic healing of Hyomei penetrates to the most remote cells of the nose, throat and lungs, killing all catarrhal germs, healing the irritated mucous membrane and effecting a complete and permanent cure.

No medicine taken into the stomach can possibly reach the remote cells of the air passages, or give the immediate relief that follows the use of Hyomei. A few days' treatment is usually all that is necessary to show how quickly this remedy will cure catarrh.

So successful has Hyomei been in the cure of catarrh among their customers that Hill's drug store sells it under a positive guarantee that it costs nothing unless it gives satisfaction. The complete outfit sells for one dollar, while extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents. a13 24 m
