AN INDEPENDENT PAPER.
Member of Associated Press.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14

Representative Bartholdt, of Missouri, a prominent exponent of world-wide peace, who has been a delegate to the recent peace conferences abroad, has introduced a bill in congress providing for the creation of the office of fourth assistant secretary of state to recommend international arbitration as a means of settling disputes between nations. The new secretary is also to have custody of all treaties which have or may be concluded between governments looking to the peaceful settlement of international disputes and of all negotiations having this object in view. Mr. Bartholdt also proposes that the new official shall gather statistics on the expenses of nations for war purposes, their expenditure for the maintenance of military and naval establishments, the cost of former wars, including pensions, and of present preparations for war.

While it is not probable that President Roosevelt will be allowed another nomination, by reason of its giving him practically a third term in case of election, still it seems probable that he will attempt to dictate who his successor will be. In that last event the nominee will get jolted very hard on the Pacific coast. The president's uncalled for criticism of San Francisco for not admitting Japanese to white public schools will not be forgotten or forgiven. President Roosevelt surely does not understand the orientals, nor the temper of our people on this question, though he should. The vote for excluding Chinese was practically solid, and from all accounts the Japanese is a less desirable emigrant than his Chinese neighbor.

Each congress witnesses the introduction of many measures seeking to increase the pay of the rural mail carriers. Each congress also fails to act on this question. Representative Humphreys, of Mississippi, has proposed a measure fixing the compensation of rural carriers at $900 yearly, to commence July 1st next. He also thinks the carriers should be allowed $150 additional each year for the maintenance and equipment of their necessary outfit. Representative Smyser proposes that the rural carriers shall be allowed $200 per annum for their equipment.

After expending a million to stop the break in the bank of the Colorado river at the Mexican line, they have the big river cut around the artificial bank into the Southern Pacific railroad twice in the last year. There is a big stake, a valley rich in agricultural possibilities and the saving of building and future operating expenses of two hundred miles of railroad around the inland sea the river will make if not controlled.

A dry goods house advertises "shirt waists one-third off." That is probably the latest designation of the kind in fashion last summer.

These killings like the Murray one at Portland, to avenge the honor of a sister, make it all the worse for that sister who, he loves, killed, in humiliation must take the witness stand and tell all to save her brother. The killing right no wrong on the contrary gives widespread publicity to what before would have been of very circumscribed knowledge, even suspicion. While the betrayer deserves no sympathy from any female relative but makes the matter far worse.

The Guard's special edition is doing good work for Advertising Lane county just at the time of year such publicity is most effective. Several thousand copies have already gone out to every state in the Union, and will have been circulated.

What is one man's meat is another man's poison. Jamaican workers on the Panama canal are reported dying as the result of cleanliness and fresh air.

Secretary Loeb has the office routine so systemized by this time that any renomination rumor about President Roosevelt can be denied by return mail.

The $10 certificate with a buffalo on the back has a dangerous counterfeit. It is said to be so perfect as to deceive any but experts.

Occasionally you meet a man who is so long on language of a superior sort that the dictionary purs every time he comes near it.

Many people are humble before other people but they make up for it by being proud of themselves.

Why We Want It.

When fickle fortune flings us low
And leaves us badly in the lurch
It's not that ill luck pains us so
That makes us for a bludgeon search
But comes some big, presumptive blow,
And very loudly he asserts
That he had always told us so
And say we've got our just deserts.

No Relation.

"Ever get a wireless message?"

"No; a senseless one is the nearest I ever came."

Eminently So.

"Is he a desirable person to know?"

"Oh, yes; he is always good for a ten."

Henry C. Ide, late governor general of the Philippines, who arrived in the United States a short time ago to attend the marriage of his daughter, Annie, to Congressman Bourke Cockran, has seen a longer service in insular affairs than perhaps any other American of prominence. It was in 1891 that he was appointed United States commissioner in Samoa. Two years later he was made chief justice of Samoa under joint appointment of England, Germany and the United States. He served in Samoa until 1897. He was appointed to the Philippine commission by President McKinley in 1900 and succeeded General Luke E. Wright as vice governor of the islands. When General Wright surrendered the governor generalship to become ambassador to Japan, Judge Ide succeeded to his shoes again. He was born in Barnett, Vt., in 1844 and is a graduate of Dartmouth college. He was in the Vermont senate previous to his appointment as commissioner in Samoa. Speaking of conditions in the Philippines, Judge Ide says:

HENRY C. IDE.

"The Philippines are today in better shape than they ever were under Spanish or American rule. The labor question is no longer a problem. What the Philippines do need, however, is a square deal in the matter of the tariff."

The Temptation of "Getting"

By Rev. FRANCIS L. PATTON, President Princeton Theological Seminary

O the poor man I say, "You poor man, you sell your muscle, you eat the bread of toil, ONLY TO BE DESPISED by the rich and prosperous."

And to the rich man I say: "Are YOU any better? You have bought and sold, your strong box is stuffed with securities, yours is the first cabin on the FARMERS' PRODUCE, you travel across the country in your private car, the deep waters of adversity flood that, "Heaven help us both, and you both must seek refuge in eternal life, the character of which is determined by your conduct HERE."

IT IS BETTER TO BE THAN TO HAVE. But many of us think the opposite. We go through college and we say these professional attainments must bring us something, and we start in to get. Money is everything in this world. We CANNOT be blind to the fact that we are living in an age of money. Money is everything in this world. We must be on our guard against avarice!

LET NOT THE MONEY CHANGERS MAKE THEIR HOME IN THE SACRED PLACES OF THE SOUL. LEAVE A LITTLE SPACE THERE AT LEAST FOR ART AND LITERATURE.

A Poem for Today

CIVIL WAR

By Charles Dawson Shanly

R

"FIREMAN, shoot me a fancy shot
Straight at the heart of yon prowling vedette;
Ring me a ball in the breast that shines out
That shines on his breast like an amulet!"

"Ah, captain, here's luck! Your wish is my lot
There's music in sound when my barrel's in tune!"
Crack! went the rifle. The messenger sped,
And dead from his horse fell the picket at noon.

"Now, rifleman, steal through the bushes and snatch
From your victim some trinket to vouch the deed:
A button, a loop or that luminous patch
That gleams in the moon like a diamond stud!"

"Oh, captain! I staggered and sunk on my track
When I gazed on the face of that fallen vedette,
For he looked so like you as he lay on his back
That my heart rose upon me and mastered me yet.

"But I snatched off the trinket—this locket of gold.
An inch from the center my knife has cut
Scarce grazing the picture, so fair to behold,
Of a beautiful lady in bridal array."

"Ha, rifleman, fling me the locket! 'Tis she,
My brother's young bride, and the fallen dragoon
Wooer and husband. Hush, soldier, 'twas heaven's decree.
We must bury him there by the light of the moon!

"But hark! The far bugles their warnings unite.
War is a virtue, weakness a sin.
There's a flurry and hoping round us tonight.
Load again, rifleman, keep your locket!"

No Difference.

No distinction is made as to the kind of Piles that Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid cures.

The names Internal, External, Bleeding, Blind, Itching, Suppurating, etc., are simply names of different stages through which every case will pass if it continues long enough.

Piles are caused by congestion or stagnation of blood in the lower bowel, and it takes an internal remedy to remove the cause.

Dr. Leonardt's Hem-Roid is a tablet taken internally. It is a permanent cure. Money back if it fails. Price, $1.00 at all druggists. Dr. Leonhardt Co., Niagara Falls, N. Y., Proprietors.

BEAUTIFUL DISHES ARE GIVEN AWAY.

That beautiful display of China salad and fruit dishes made by The Guard in the window of the Walton building, is attracting a great deal of attention. Hundreds of people have admired it, and wondered how this paper can afford to give away such valuable premiums. The explanation is that we secured the real "snap" and are giving our patrons the benefit of it during the holiday season.

These dishes would cost from $3 to $5 at any store, but are given free to new or old subscribers of the Daily Guard who pay a year for the paper, $3 in cash and $3 at the rate of 50 cents per month.

When you pay your subscription the first of this month bear in mind this offer. There are only a few of the dishes left, and you will have to hurry to get one.

These dishes will make beautiful Christmas presents.
