INSANITY DEFENSE OF THIEF

Judge Sentenced Him to Five Years in the Penitentiary.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 31.—John Ramsay, who was arrested January 15 for burglary, pleaded guilty before Judge Miller, in the Superior Court, today, and was sentenced to serve five years in the State Penitentiary. Ramsay stole two overcoats from the office of Doctors Hixon and Stowell, January 14. He took the stolen articles to Portland, where he was apprehended and brought back for trial. Ramsay, by representing himself to be a mining expert, succeeded in victimizing several business men here previous to his arrest. He created quite a sensation in court today by pleading his own case. His plea for clemency would have done credit to a trained lawyer. He alleged that he met with an accident in the Kootenay country some time ago, which injured his skull and affected his brain so that he was subject to fits of temporary insanity, and while in that condition he committed the offense charged. This, he said, is his first criminal offense.

W. C. T. U. Institute.

A two-days' Woman's Christian Temperance Union institute was begun at the Presbyterian Church in this city today. The institute is conducted by Mrs. Margaret B. Platt and Mrs. Margaret C. Munns, State President and Corresponding Secretary, respectively, of the organization.

Those who wish to practice economy should buy Carter's Little Liver Pills. Forty pills in a vial; only one pill a dose.
