THE AMES MERCANTILE AGENCY CAN be consulted at their rooms, Abington building, on business opportunities in Oregon and Washington. They are in a position to give valuable assistance to those looking for desirable locations in the following or any other line of business:
Milling (lumber)—Interest in lumbering corporation on Columbia River; $2500. Complete sawmill on river and railroad; $3500. Half interest in inland mill, local demand; $2500.
Flour—Flourmill, Eastern Washington, purchaser of half interest to have full control; remaining interest held by silent partner; $4000; easy terms.
COMMISSION.
Well-established concern can use some additional capital and the services of a reputable business man.
Good city milling and feed store.
GENERAL STORES.
In Willamette Valley, Southern and Eastern Oregon, some good bargains; from $3000 to $70,000.
GROCERY STORES.
Can only recommend city propositions in this line. They are unprofitable in small towns. Old established stands can now be had located in different parts of city. A necessity for this business is some experience and as much as $1500 capital. With this it is a safe and good business.
A responsible business man has a proposition to submit to a party with $5000 or upwards. It looks gilt-edge.
Investments examined and reported on. Capital secured for meritorious enterprises.
