WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The North Pacific storm is advancing slowly eastward and it is now central over British Columbia. The following maximum wind velocities occurred during the last 12 hours: North Head, Wash., 60 miles south, and Tatoosh Island, 56 miles south.

Light rains have occurred generally in Northern California, Northern Nevada, Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

The indications are that the rains will continue over Thursday and that the winds will gradually diminish. No marked changes in temperature are expected, but it will be slightly cooler Thursday in nearly all portions of this district.

WEATHER FORECASTS.

Forecasts made at Portland for the 28 hours ending at midnight December 1:

Portland and vicinity—Occasional rain, southwesterly winds.

Oregon and Washington—Occasional rain; brisk to high winds diminishing along the coast during the day.

Idaho—Rain.

EDWARD A. BEALS, District Forecaster.

DO YOU KNOW

That Woodstock is 400 feet higher than the business district of Portland?

That this means purer air, more sunshine and better health for the fortunate people who live in this suburb?

That Woodstock also has pure water, a fertile soil, school, churches, postoffice, stores, excellent car-service?

That lots are 100 feet square, every lot a corner?

That we are selling these lots at $175 to $250; $10 down and $10 per month?

That we will loan you money to build and you can pay us in installments?

That NOW is the time to take advantage of this great opportunity to secure a home?
