Coquille Eagles Ask Roosevelt Birthday Be National Holiday

Designation by Congress of the late President Roosevelt's birthday, January 31, as a national holiday, was urged in a resolution unanimously adopted last week by Coquille Aerie, No. 2196, Fraternal Order of Eagles, at a meeting in the Eagle home.

The resolution declared that the four-term president embodied "during the most critical period in modern history the hopes, the aspirations and the ideals of his fellow countrymen and the oppressed peoples of the entire world." The measure further stated that Roosevelt "is assured an immortal place in world history, and will earn the gratitude of American generations yet to come, and the esteem and affection of free peoples in all lands, bringing everlasting glory to this great nation."

Copies of the resolution were sent to U. S. Senators Wayne Morse and Guy Cordon and to Congressman Harris Ellsworth. A bill requesting that Roosevelt's birthday be observed as a national holiday, introduced by Senator Sherdian Downey of California, is now pending in the Senate.

The late President was a life member of Buffalo (N. Y.) Aerie, and was closely associated with the Fraternal Order of Eagles in its camapaign for state old age pension laws and the national Social Security Act.
