ALTAR, HIS THEME

Rt. Rev. Abbot Thomas Speaks at Cathedral.

LOVE, GOD'S MASTERPIECE

Declares That the Altar of the Church Shows the Divine Love for Man, and Asks Its Remembrance.

Right-Rev. Abbot Thomas, of Mount Angel, was the preacher at vespers last night at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, and chose as his subject, "The Altar." He specially addressed the members of the altar society of the Cathedral parish, and among the clergy present was Archbishop Christie. The musical service was an impressive one, solos being sung by Miss Elizabeth A. Harwass and Dom J. Zan. There was a large congregation.

Abbot Thomas gave an eloquent lecture, and said in part:

"Pointing to the altar which has been raised in this sanctuary, I raise my voice in earnest appeal and say: 'Behold, this altar will be a testimony unto you; a testimony of your faith in Him who has made this altar the place of his daily oblation; a testimony of your hope in him who hides his glory and majesty upon this altar, in order without fear and trembling that we all may approach him. Orators tell us of the altar of our country where her best and noblest sons willingly sacrifice their hopes, ambitions and aye, their lives. We hear lofty words spoken of the altar of the human heart, upon which we offer sacrifice either to virtue or vice, and the pages will remain unknown until God shows them to the world in his own good time.

"There is also the altar of love and hatred. Love is the grandest creation, God's masterpiece. When God created love he consulted his heart rather than his intellect. Hatred is love's opposite. The altar of the Catholic Church is the altar of God's love for man, in the manger at Bethlehem, at the Last Supper at Jerusalem, and upon Mount Calvary. Before God's altar you have rejoiced in time of prosperity and there, too, your tears have flowed in the hour of sorrow. There you have formed your resolutions, made your promises and felt the streams of heavenly grace overflowing your soul. The poverty of the altar shall proclaim the fact that you remember the beauty and comfort of your own home, but forget the beauty and comfort of the house of God. Its splendor shall announce to all that enter this church that God's business is dear to your heart, and that you love the beauty of God's home on earth."

In closing the abbot made a plea for new members for the Altar Society and called the latter "a priceless diamond."

LONDON STOCK MARKET DULL

Money Grows Cheaper and American Securities Are Higher.

LONDON, April 9.—The stock market developed dullness during the week, owing to the various new bond issues attracting more attention from the public investor than speculative shares. The disappearance of the hopes of peace between Russia and Japan, which caused Paris to sell here also added to the depression, while the Moroccan question and the home political situation had an effect upon the sensitive market, which was reflected in the decline in the price of consols during the week.

Money for the time being is fairly cheap now that dividends have been disbursed and the Japanese loan calls paid, but there is some doubt that there will be a plethora at the present time, owing to the fact that Paris is absorbing all the gold on the open market, presumably for Russia, and not much is likely to arrive at the Bank of England. Should the war be concluded soon, however, the position will be reversed and gold probably will be sent to the continent from London.

American securities have shaken off the recent depression under the efforts of the Wall-street bulls, and quotations were generally higher during the week. Canadian Pacifics and Steel preferred leading with a rise of six points each. Public interest here is still moderate, despite the optimistic reports from America regarding general prosperity and splendid trade conditions.

Multnomah Club Shoot.

The second weekly meeting of the Multnomah Rod and Gun Club found smaller percentages recorded yesterday than in the first meeting. The score yesterday was:

	Shot at.	Broke.	P.C.
Collier	100	84	.84
Abraham	100	81	.81
Winters	100	77	.77
Carlson	100	74	.74
Cooke	65	48	.74
Caldwell	70	46	.66
Long	100	64	.64
Kiernan	50	31	.62
Halver	50	30	.60
Lipman	65	39	.60
Thornton	150	60	.60
Wells	100	52	.52
Buckley	100	37	.37
Spears	10	2	.20
Kodal	10	1	.10

The last two weekly club shoots may be regarded as simply practice events, but next Sunday the club will begin the series for the Inman medal. From that time on bigger scores may be expected.

Trials of a Game Warden.

Milwaukee Sentinel.

"Game Wardens lead a strenuous existence, it is said, and I know that some of them have to be pretty shrewd to carry out the work for which they are appointed," said M. L. Ferguson.

"I was told a story in a little town out on the other edge of the state the other day which bears out this statement.

"A game warden found a man spearing pickerel through the ice. At the side of the little shanty in which the fishing was done lay a large pickerel. The game warden stole to the hut and threw open the door.

"'Did you spear this pickerel?' he asked.

"'I did that.'

"'Did you know it is against the law?'

"'Well, you see that the fish isn't dead,' was the assured response. 'I have been spearing catfish, and that pickerel kept getting in the way. I had to jab it lightly and lay it on the ice until I finish fishing. Then I will put it back.'

"The game warden walked off."

DAILY METEOROLOGICAL REPORT.

PORTLAND, April 9.—Maximum temperature, 56 deg.; minimum, 42. River reading at 11 A. M., 5.1 feet; change in past 24 hours, —0.4. Total precipitation, 5 P. M. to 5 P. M., trace; total since September 1, 1904, 27.65 inches; normal, 39.32; deficiency, 11.67. Total sunshine April 8, 1905, 7 hours and 55 minutes; possible, 13 hours and 11 minutes. Barometer (reduced to sea level), at 5 P. M., 30.01.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

A disturbance of moderate energy has developed over the Great Salt Lake Basin, causing rains in scattered portions of Eastern Oregon, Eastern Washington, Southern Idaho and Northern Utah. Light showers have also occurred today in the Sound country. The weather this evening is generally clear in this district west of the Cascades, and cloudy and threatening in the sections east of this range of mountains.

The indications are for generally fair weather in this district Monday, except in Southern Idaho, where showers will probably continue.
