West Berliners accept proposal for discussions

BERLIN (UPI) — West Berlin today accepted informal Communist proposals to negotiate a new agreement for West Berliners to pass through the Communist wall in the future to visit East Berlin.

West Berlin Deputy Mayor Heinrich Albertz said the city government is ready to meet with the East Germans in an effort to reach a new official agreement. The current holiday visiting pass agreement, in unprecedented negotiations this month, expires Jan. 5.

There was uneasiness in the West Berlin press over the prospect of negotiations with the Communists, whose regime the West does not recognize. But Albertz said there was no reason for such fears. He said the city acted only in agreement with the West German government and the Western Allies.

He said the "technical, practical contacts" with the Communists did not constitute recognition. Western Allied sources disagreed and said West Berliners would not have accepted the visiting passes if they realized the political cost.

East German Communist officials Sunday renewed their offer to negotiate a new agreement on passage through the city wall after the present arrangement for holiday visits to East Berlin expires Jan. 5.

West Berliners took advantage of their passes Sunday in record numbers, with 154,621 crossing into the Soviet sector for the day. The previous day's high was 70,000 on Saturday.

The crush caused an unprecedented traffic jam of automobiles, buses, street cars, baby carriages, and pedestrians. Not since the Communists built their wall in August, 1961, has East Berlin seen such traffic.

West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt indicated he was willing to hold new talks with the Communists. In the past, the West has refused to negotiate with East Germany because it has sought to avoid giving the Communist régime any measure of recognition.

Brandt called the Christmas pass agreement a small step forward.

"I have no doubt that we must continue along this path," he said. "This is our immediate task in the new year."

Neues Deutschland, the Communist party newspaper of East Germany, said East Germany was willing to make concessions "but we also have demands to make on the other side. Compromises are necessary."

The West Berlin newspaper Tagesspiegel said further pass talks could make the Western allies feel West Berlin and West Germany were adopting a new policy of negotiations with the Communists.

But East German Deputy Premier Alexander Abusch, the official who handled the pass agreement for the Communists said the pass agreement is a good omen for further efforts to ease tension and expressed his willingness to negotiate again after Jan. 5.

Guerrillas kill U.S. officer

SAIGON (UPI) — A U.S. Army first lieutenant was killed Saturday by Communist guerrilla fire which ripped through the cockpit of the HU1B armed helicopter he was piloting over the Mekong Delta, an American military spokesman said.

The spokesman said the craft was with a flight of armed helicopters escorting a command helicopter carrying a senior American military advisor on an administrative mission.

The incident occurred some 55 miles south southwest of the capital near the village of Mo Cay.

According to the spokesman, no other military personnel aboard the helicopter were injured and the co-pilot took control of the craft bringing it back to its base in Saigon.

The pilot's death raised to 162 the number of American military personnel killed in combat action or accidents here since 1961.
