0

FOL. 3. OcHOCO REVIEN.

J. A. DoUTHIT.  teans of stimectiontios:

 $=$  Comes  $E$

Fimmem

$=5$

Propessionit
H. P. EELKNAP, M. D., PHYSICLAN ASD SURGEON,
c. J. EEATTY

c. s. WRICHT,
destal strgeos,
-
Coo. W. barnes,

w.s. A. JOhns,

J. F. MOORE,

J. E. ATWATER

ATto
& Dillas,

D. L. PATEE,

Contractor & builder

ORKING CLASSES STHNNTON

or

Livery & Feed Stable
PRINEVHLLE, OREGON.

HAMILTON & COHRS Would rexpect fully inform the public that they lane thi lest of accommodations at their table, and travelerk can depend yon their animals recciving the bost of care and attention. Terma reasonable

Fine Box Stalls

For keeping stallions and other

Kalsomining & Paporing

 is specithly, and all werk warrantictGENT'S CLOTHES CLEANED AND REPAIRED

Mas. s. puann
 hentine thention

White Salmon Nursery

 Vhich in sumbebsery

 Orders filled on reasonable terms.
Wm. F. Helm, Nancine, Oregon, General Avent Whito Salmon Nurs:
Mratand Ampat tor all kinds of Agricultura
Machinery. Also agent
Compauy.

ED. N. WHITE,

- phopaieton of the-

POPULAR RESORT FOR ALL

A good cigar,
A nice refreshing drink,
A social game of cards.

Club Rooms for Cames
Call carly, late and often

REVLEW.

SATURDAY, DECEMBEK 17, 1887.
N0. 27.

his wife

This being the c
will be in full when Battenberg

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { itish army. Mrs. Battenberg } \\ & \text { ues of a prolific family, and Bat- }
\end{aligned}
$$

first baby, and the good old queen of iigy vine, which becomes the at once promoted her soa-in-luw to crown of the tablet bearing the in-

TMmin sion

 Whe men aro diselarged becaunethe appropriation is exhausted Whero has it Where has it gone? One haudred and fifty men at say ti per f them 240 men and the wages for the fall work wotld the Whero is the balance? The ec ment bill wor't cover it. Eighty wiftuation thousand dollara expended the thousand dollars expended this summer and what is the ret suumer and what is the renult?
Well, mome sand has been removed some of the rocks cut several year ago have been recut and reduced ago have been recut and reduced in siac, and a recess is started for one
,

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { go it, Bat ! } \\
& \text { But there }
\end{aligned}
$$ of the locks. Bah! The locks at Oregon City coest the state $$ 4000000$ Orgon City cost the state $$ 400,000$ and the worle at the Cascades not more than double that at Or not more than double that at Ore

the exty, yexpended in completing the Oregon City locke, has been spent in removing a few scow loads of sand at the Cascades this fall $$ 1,150,000$ have been expended at the Cascade locks, more than enough to have completed them, yet at the waterway convention yet at the waterway convention Powell said be could not tell what it would cost to conplete them he it would cost to conplete them be cause the sarveys were not mada cause the surveys were not made nor the planh comprived. tecn years these government oflicials bave had charge of this work and they have not yet completed the plans or specifications. Is it not high time that the work be let by contract to men? $$ 200000 \mathrm{ju}$ - diciously expended would do all the work that has been done at the Cascade locks. Nearly $$ 1,000,000$ bave been absorbed atherwise have been absorbed otherwise
The work will never be completed unless it is done by contract, and unless it is done by contract, and Mitchell's bill and Hermann's bill are each simply claptrap. We are each simply claptrap. We want the appropriation, but if it is to be expended by a lot of cadets and incompetents,- -if it is to te boats, -if it is to get huge blocks of atone and cut them on the monkey and cheose plan until nothing is left-if this is the mannerin which the appropriation is to be expend de treasury, or if it must be a ppro priated for clectioncering purposes by Mitchell and Hermann, let it the Cascades. The returns would be as heneficial and we would not be made siek with hopes deferred. If Mitchell or Hermann will intro, duce a bill and work for it turning over the government property and works at the Cascades to the state of Oregon, they will win glory for themselves, and do something for our benefit. A tax of $$ 1$ per ton on wheat raised in the inland empire in one year wil almost complete the work. Let the government give us a chance to do the work, and it will be done.

Worklig His Way Epward. Queen Vietoria's youngest daughter, Beatrice, it will be romembered, married, or was married by her royal mamma, to a young fej.
low named Battenberg, or, as they low named Battenberg, or, as they have a habit of ealling hitn over in Earope, Prince Battenberg. About a year ago Mrs. Battenberg presented Mr. Battenberg with his sented ir. Batcenberg waby, and the good old queen

But there is another side of the question. How will the subje the Hestion. How will the subjects of Her Mrjesty look upon this new clvil-service scheme of hers? Of courso they will be glad to see hondesert, but could not a less expensve plan of conferring them have Theen devised! As we have indi-have never needed any extrancous otimulation for encouragement of their "infant industries" That sort of thing seems to run in the family-to be indigenous to th soil, as it were. Surely there is no need to offir inducements for the increase of the Battenbergs-to s:t $a$ premiund upon their maltiplicaa premiura upon their maltiplica-tion. This thing of the growing Crtility of their royal family is becoming a serious matter for British people. Every time there princely pauper is added to the rolls, who must be supported in chas, who must be supported luxurious idleness. Millions already drained from the taxpayers for this purpose, and the lis grows larger through births an marriages, the millions swell promarriages, the millions swell proportionately. It is true the quee portionately. It is true the queen has enough to provide for her numerous progeny herself, but she doesn't and she wen't so long as the people, in their foolish venera-

thon the bill. tho

Viewed from this standpoint, it would have been better if Her Najesty had adopted some other plan for serewing up her son-in-law near to the notch of his wiff's roy al highness. She might moted hims, for instance, every time new arrival was discovered his upper lip, or better still, ever $\int$ A Stone Well heared. A. She died is it defense of her ho April 8, 1886 , aged 18 years Wected by an appreciative public.
We arrest, we sit on juries, conviet, we imprison, and we lyncb, but not often do we afterward conspire that the girl who defends her honor against the hand of the spoiler shall have as lasting a monument as our love for her virtue and courage can possibly inspire But Hackettstown, N. J., stirred to its depth for eighteen months in sympathy for brave Tillin Smith, sympathy for brave Tillin Smith, an humble servant girl, and enlisting co operation from almost every ing co operation from almost every state in the union, unveiled on thanksgiving day a monument to the dead girl, as above inseribe he monument as above inscribed enting a girl with shoulders bare robe draped in Greeian style, in r right bind upholding a wreath ivy wine, which becomes the

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { coiues of a prolific family, and Bat- } \\ & \text { tepberg himelf sems ambitious, } \end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { teaberg bimsell seoms ambitious, } \\ & \text { white he evidently grappe fully the } \\ & \text { situation. }
\end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { uation. As for ourselves, ever } \\ & \text { mpathizing with young aspirants, }
\end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { sytupathizing with young aspirants, } \\ & \text { apd ever ready to see merit re- } \\
& \text { warded, we say with all our soul, }
\end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { warded, we say with all our soul, } \\
& \text { go it, Bat ! }
\end{aligned}
$$

irtue vanished from our woman's and, both government and soeiety, are what is more, it never will. There doctrines to punishment. Their their re monuments never will. There doctrines and their deeds are inAnd this one to Tillie Smith was a man can bave anything to do with ne well reared.
The Lesson of the Hour This is a free country. Here only free country upon earth, shun any honest man can reap the full its teachings.
benefit of his labor and industry Here a man can build up his charthere ind fortune and protect hoth. hers is no ruling class. Those who claim to the contrary are peitical montebanks. No man who has brains and muscle need fear position and independence. The aw protects him in his rights, and if he is industrious and persocering he is industrious and porsovering of his abilly and geaius. Nearly every prominent citizen, mechanic, merchant and offieial in this country bas worked himself up from the bottom to the top round of the ladder. This fact is strikingly illustrated by the history of nearly very prominent man in the counprince to the president of the nited States. These statements Mre true in their broadest sense. are liable to be met with in the rre liable to be met with in the race. Misfortune comes to all classes, to the poor and rich alike. But, nevertheless, the rule holds proclaims that under the flag of the great Anerican republic, every equal chance to better his condition and an equal voice in the government of the land. The malishes the order a majority estabbad administration can be any thrown. That this is repeatedly done, none can successfully deny The Boss Tweed ring was broken add the boodlers' brigade in Canaday, proves this assertion.
The ever changing public sentiment on matters of public importance proves it. The patriotism of armed treason has proveng down it is an acknowledged fact by all except restless demagugues and the anarchist. the anarchist.
The spread of anarchism in America is the work of the past few years. It is the labor of a eign element, which has been gn element, which has been driven to our shores by the governments of the old world, where kings and emperors reign, and backed by powerful standing armies, rule These sword.
These restless, and desperate tyramny, could not appreciate the blessings of a free government and free country and have found to their cost license cannot and will taught them and their deluded fol. lowers, at Chicago, ought to be lowers, at Chicago, ought to be sufficient, but it probably will not be, and that the strong hand of the be, and that the strong hand of the law will again and again be called upon todeal with and punish their crimes.
It not these imported leaders

Feminine Reformers

Of the National Womens' Chrisvian Temperance Union convention vork at Nashville, fined its great he truthfully said it Tens., it may horough and searching in smoothial system. If there in our soect of interest to the gentler sex which this convention has not to light. Some of its resolutions are most radical in character. The ascollette sty le of dress is denounced ns' pretty faces as trade-marks is inthood. Both of these propositions and a degeneration to womare somewhat uncompromising. In other lines of denunciation equally energetic, though sumewhat more just. They deprecate the taughter of birds for the ornamenthey are strangely silent regarding high bonnets for theater wear. ghts in dennce the report of prizehey commend the newspapers for their truthful reproduction of the proceedings of the Nashville conention. And they did not devote thoir entire time to grumbling.
Some things in this wicked world neet their approval. It is gratifyneet their approval. It is gratifying to know that they are pleased ing to know that they are pleased with Mrs. Grover Cleveland and the excellent example which she sets the women of the country.

The Parson Stopped it.

"We doubt," says one of the Moutana exchanges, "if our people give the proper anount of credit to Rev. Whitetie, of this city, for the Rev. Whitetie, of this city, for the grand work he is deing in ridding grand work he is deing in ridding the place of gambling houser and breakimg up the monster vice of ambling. Few seem to realize he magnitude of the work he is we might mention An instance recently, in the evening about 8 $o$ 'clock the reverend gentleman aok $$ 50$ which he had collected for oreign missions the Sunday bedown to the Gold Brek and went notorious gambling den in the city quaring bimself den in the eity. yout, the good man began to arnestly play his system, keeping lose up to the limit, and at 8 clock the next morning he had he premises, while thot a deed of prietor was walking out of town without his breakfast. This is but one instance of the great work Rev.
Whitetie is doing for

