COACHMAN'S BUTTONS.

Some Supplied by an Exclusive Philadelphia Family Cost Six Hundred Dollars a Set.

If it were generally known how valuable are the buttons that servants of Philadelphia's prominent families wear upon their liveries a new field for the collector's energy might be opened, says the New York Commercial. The student of heraldry, too, would find these buttons of great interest, for the family arms in their most approved form are stamped on many of them. Nor would the collector's interest be the only value connected with them. They are made of gold and silver and decorated in the most artistic and expensive fashion.

Alexander Van Rensselaer's, for instance, cost $600 a set. They are made of solid silver, and, as an evidence of their quality, the good word "sterling" is stamped in deep letters on their back. Alexander Van Rensselaer's town house is the imposing structure of pale limestone that stands on the northwest corner of Eighteenth and Walnut streets. His wife was a Miss Drexel. His family is one of the oldest in America. Therefore, on the silver buttons, the Van Rensselaer crest—a basket from which flames leave—is embossed.

The buttons are in three sizes; one as big as a half dollar, for the front of a goachman's coat; another as big as a quarter, for the coat's back and a third, as big as a dime, for the waistcoat.

They are made by a dextrous smith in New Jersey, and their shanks have a peculiar strength, for if they should break or disappear it would be a serious loss. Furthermore, they are sewed upon the cloth in a peculiar manner, with a very special sort of patent thread. Every care is taken, in a word, to make them safe.

Big Relic Trust.

A relic trust has been organized by the Omaha and Winnebago Indians. The president of this grasping monopoly is Great Thunder, a Winnebago, whose specialty is making bows and arrows. Green Rainbow and Prairie Chicken, makers of snakeskin belts, and John A. Logan, manufacturer of eagle feather headdresses, are directors. These leaders will hereafter fix the prices of Indian goods made for white purchasers.

First Scientist—I hear that your dog went mad and bit Professor Snagroots. Any serious results?

Second Scientist—Yes, the poor dog is barking in Latin and Greek!—Chicago News.

A Modest Request.

"Excuse me, conductor, but I wish you'd run the train rather slowly as far as Mendville. You see, I've a jar of preserves here, and my wife told me to be sure that it wasn't shaken!"

Parental Anxiety.

"I should think your folks would be awfully anxious about you."

"Yes, mum. They're afraid I might escape."—New York Evening Journal.

An Aged Trick.

The schoolmaster gave a wild howl and fell with a bang from his wheel.

"What is it?" cried his favorite pupil, as she circled around him.

"It's a tack," moaned the master.

"In your tire?"

"No, in my saddle."—Indianapolis Journal.

The colored comic section is a genuine laugh-maker. The funny cartoons are by the best artists. The humorous stories are high class, by authors of national reputation.

Sheet music, a high-class, popular song, is furnished free every Sunday in the Republic.

The price of the Sunday Republic by mail one year is $2.00. For sale by all news dealers.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?
ALL CASES OF
DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE
by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.
HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.
F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1891.
Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours,
F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.
Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.
Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.
