For Justice of the Peace, KNOX HUSTON. For Constable, L. W. WOODS.

An equal and just assessment of every dollar's worth of property in the county is what every honest taxpayer wants.

We want a representative in congress who is a recognized leader of men, who can grasp ideas and handle them with a master hand...

The committee appointed by the senate to investigate the charges of bribery against ex-Congressman Buttz found that he was guilty of offering a bribe to Senators Kyle and Hinton to induce them to vote against the tariff bill.

The re-enactment of the mortgage tax law, with exemption from taxation for honest indebtedness, is a question of party faith with the democrats of Oregon.

Prof. D. V. S. Reid is the teachers' candidate for state superintendent. He is not a politician, but which is more to the point, he is a thorough organizer of schools.

It will be to the interests of the people to vote for Taylor Hill for commissioner. He has been successful in the management of his own business and in managing county affairs.

Delph, Hermann and Ellis thought it wouldn't lock well to vacate their seats in congress and come to Oregon and make a personal campaign; hence they hired R. G. Hoor, tariff editor of the N. Y. Tribune, to come out here and tell the Oregonians how to vote.

The people of Oregon should wipe out the stain of having the only partisan bench of supreme judges of any state in the union. To do this they must elect Hon. A. S. Bennett to the supreme bench on the 4th of next June.

For the information of those who are so industriously circulating reports that W. A. Booth will appoint this or that man deputy in case he is re-elected, we desire to state that he has not promised the deputyship to anyone.

The office of state school superintendent should be filled by an educator of more than local reputation. He should be an organizer and worker.

The republican press of the state is pleading the baby act, and is trying to throw the blame of the corruption prevailing in the acts of the last legislature upon the democratic and populist majority.

Our protectionist friends who have been telling us that Australian wool could be laid down in Boston for 7 cents a pound will please read the American Sheep Breeder's review of the prices of wool in Melbourne and Sidney for the past year.

T. H. Lapollett, democratic nominee for member of state board of equalization, will not go on the state board as the solicitor of any individual or set of individuals, but as the representative of the people of the entire district.

The republican orators say "we want to protect American labor against foreign pauper labor because we cannot compete with those Chinese who work for eight cents a day."

A fondness for hand shaking is not necessarily a qualification for an office holder, nor the average man would prefer supporting a man for office who is the same old time—any who knows him any day in the year as well as he does a few weeks before election.

It has been reported that W. A. Booth is opposed to foreigners as a class, and has made use of complimentary remarks concerning the naturalized foreigners of this country.

Judge Sumner has served us six years as county judge, and during that time he has shown himself to be a man of the people, and they will endorse his acts on election day.

NEED NOT BE A CORRECTION.

The average republican is now engaged in trying to catch the votes of those engaged in the sheep business, black owners and herders, by the cry that "with the tariff taken off of wool you are brought into direct competition with the wool growers of Australia and New Zealand, where they raise and market wool for 7 cents a pound."

During January and February the market gradually weakened, and at the close of the season prices were about 5 per cent lower all round.

The following may be regarded as about the average rates of the season:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes Good to superior Merino, Average to good, Medium to fine, etc.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes Superior, Good to superior, Medium to fine, etc.

The total sales at Sidney for the year were 400,196 bales.

In concluding his review of the wool market for the past year the Sheep Director says: "The position of the market as regards supplies and stocks is not materially different from this time last year."

The republican orators say "we want to protect American labor against foreign pauper labor because we cannot compete with those Chinese who work for eight cents a day."

Do you want to return Delph to the U. S. senate to work for Portland and against silver? If so vote for A. B. Lytle.

"No voter can cast his vote intelligently unless he understands the tariff. I believe nine-tenths of the voters of Crook county do not know what the tariff is."

Whether this was intended as a joke or an insult to the intelligence of the voters of Crook county we are unable to say.

In 1892 there were $174,124,270.07 duties collected, and of this amount $8,825,236.88 were collected on wines, brandies, spirits, etc.
