All indications point to the fact that the coming fall meeting of the Prineville Jockey Club will be one of their best meetings. It follows the Antelope meeting and a large number of horse men have already signified their intention to attend our meeting.

Over two weeks ago William Smith who was working for Mr. A. J. Noble, of Paulina, had the misfortune to be thrown from a horse and had his right leg broken below the knee. Dr. Beckman was called and set the broken limb and is doing as well as could be expected.

Wm Staats, of the Bend, a few days ago had the misfortune to get his hand severely hurt. He was unloading a load of hay with a derrick fork. They commenced hoisting before he had the fork set, throwing him off the fork and in falling his hand was caught in the pulley, lacerating one of his fingers badly. He came to Prineville and had the injured hand treated.

Last Tuesday morning Shaniko had her first fire which destroyed the Pease & Mays building, an iron structure 100 feet square, together with Pease & Mays general merchandise store and Troughton & Henry's drug store, which were located in the building. The fire is supposed to have caught from a defective gas flue in the rear part of the drugstore. Total loss about $35,000, covered by insurance.

The work on Poindeexter's hotel is about completed and will be thrown open during the latter part of next week. It has been the common talk for years that Prineville needed another hotel. This we have. Mr. Poindeexter has erected a two-story hotel, and has fitted it with all the latest appliances and is able to accommodate his guests in a satisfactory manner. Give him a call and satisfy yourself.

Mr. Lewis was one of those sturdy frontiersmen who took an active part in the early settlement of the Pacific coast, and was possessed of every trait of a Special Offer in Music For Readers Of This Paper.

We are in receipt of a copy of E. T. Paull's latest and greatest march, just from the press, entitled "Dawn of the Century March." The title page is a work of art, without doubt the handsomest ever seen on a piece of music, magnificently lithographed in five colors. Mr. Paull is known all over the country by people who use music as being the author of the celebrated "Ben Hur Character Race March," which is a universal favorite. Other famous marches composed by him are "Charge of the Light Brigade," "America Forever," "A Warning Up in Dixie," great characteristic piece, etc. This new march of Mr. Paull's "Dawn of the Century" is said by competent judges to be one of the best ever placed on the market. Mr. Paull is styled by the leading New York music journals "The New March King." Every piano and organ player should have a copy of this piece. It has six full pages of music. In consideration of our mentioning this new march in our news columns, the publishers agree to furnish any of our readers with a complete copy of the piece for 25c in postage stamps or silver, provided this notice and this paper is mentioned, otherwise the regular price 50c will be charged. The publishers also agree to furnish free, to any reader of this paper for a 2c postage stamp, a catalogue of their publications containing thirty pages of music. This special offer can only be obtained by mentioning this paper, and writing direct to the publishers, E. T. Paull Music Co., 44 W. 23rd St. New York.

Died. BABER—In this city Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, October 4, 1900, W. H. Baber, of typhoid fever. Mr. Baber had been working for Smith, the painter, but about three weeks ago had to quit work and was taken down with the fever. He was boarding at Poindeexter's restaurant, but was removed to Moore's block where he died. His parents at Junction were phoned on and they requested that his body be shipped there for interment. W. H. Sumner started with the body last Thursday evening for Shaniko, and in all probability reached its destination last night.
