A Visit to the Country.

The Junior editor of THE HERALD paid a visit to the ranch of J. S. Bowen last Sunday; he was cordially welcomed by the family. During his stay he accompanied "father Bowen" to different parts of the ranch, in the garden were pumpkins, squash, cucumbers, cabbage, corn and other vegetables adapted to this climate growing finely, evidently with very little cultivation—which does not speak very well for "father Bowen"—still the plants were in a very healthy, thriving condition. The granary is filled with grain, his stables with hay and of course situated to feed with out little labor. After returning to the house he and his friend Pearl Beer were entertained with music by Miss Dottie Bowen, in fact it was a very enjoyable visit, and we were loth to take our leave and hie to the dusty town.

Gods blessing to humanity—So says an Oregon Pioneer Ninety Years Old.

Forest Grove, Or., March 19—I have used the Oregon Kidney Tea and obtained immediate relief. It is God's blessing to humanity. I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted. I am now nearly ninety years old, came to Oregon in 1842 in the employ of the Hudson's Bay Company, and since I began using the Oregon Kidney Tea I enjoy good health.

Examiner Premiums.

We take pleasure in notifying our readers of a new premium list sent out by the San Francisco Examiner. $50,000 to be given away in premiums, consisting of land, wagons, horses, buggies, pianos, organs, sewing machines, lots in Chicago, lots in Baker City, and lots in various other places. Shorthorn cattle, hay scales, mowers, reapers, and various other articles of value.

The Examiner is one of the best papers in America, having a large circulation and we, cheerfully recommend it to every, one knowing they cannot better themselves.

Among the poets who will contribute to the September number of Harper's Magazine, are Howard Hall, Bennell Redd and Graham R. Tomson.

Barnet Phillips will contribute to Harper's Magazine for September a short story entitled "The Stone Ax," which will be accompanied by two illustrations from drawings by Frederic Dielman.

James Allen will contribute to the September number of Harper's Magazine, a paper describing "The Mountains Passes of the Cumberland," and the wonderful industrial development now in progress in the mountainous districts of eastern Kentucky.

Don't read! Don't think! Don't believe! Now, are you better? You women who think that patent medicines are humbug, and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the biggest humbug of the whole (because it's best known of all)—does your lack-of-faith—end come?

It is very easy to "don't" in this world. Suspicion always comes more easily than confidence. But doubt—little faith—never made a sick woman well—and the "Favorite Prescription" has cured thousands of delicate, weak women, which makes us think that our "Prescription" is better than your "don't believe." We're both honest. Let us come together. You try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If it doesn't do as represented, you get your money again.

Where proof's so easy, can you afford to doubt?

Little but active—are Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Best Liver Pills made; gentle, yet thorough. They regulate and invigorate the liver, stomach and bowels.

If any enterprise deserves success it is that of the West Shore. To publish such an elegant, high class illustrated weekly on the Pacific coast must take a greater supply of brains, hard work and perseverance than would be required in the more densely populated portions of the country. West Shore will celebrate its first anniversary as a weekly by enlarging its page to admit of better artistic effects. This enlargement was made August 16, and the paper, printed in five colors, will be the peer of any colored illustrated journal in the world. A new department is added for Boys and Girls, conducted by Emily A. Kellogg, a lady well known as a writer for juvenile publications. Ella Higginson, editor of the Woman's Department, has acquired a national reputation as a poet and writer, and her work in her work in West Shore is her best. The original humorous department is conducted by the brightest wit of the country. Its independent and pithy editorials are giving it a national reputation in news paper circles everywhere. The Pacific coast has reason to be proud of West Shore, and it should be found in every house and place of business.

The Century Magazine.

At the time of General Fremont's death he was engaged upon the manuscript of a paper for The Century's forthcoming series on the California Gold Hunters. It was to be entitled "Finding Paths to California," and was used only to deal with the several exploring expeditions, but to narrate the writer's intimate connection with the events which led to the conquest and occupation of the territory. The work will be promptly continued by Mrs. Fremont. A first draft of the article had been made, and the subject had been so recently and closely discussed by General and Mrs. Fremont that she will have no difficulty in completing the manuscript, for which she had already written an introduction, as well as a supplement describing her life at Mariposa in 1849. A fine portrait of General Fremont, from a daguerreotype of '49, will appear in the September number of The Century, along with portraits of Commodores Sloat and Stockton, "Duke" Gwin, and Governor Burnett, in an article giving account of "How California Came into the Union."

THE CRY OF MILLIONS

OH, MY BROKEN BACK!

STOP IT NOW.

SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the middle of April I went suddenly into a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner [illegible] Upon first dose it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when my friend Frank sent me Oregon Kidney Tea. Upon my return home I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost marvelous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days I was happy to state that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all sufferers as a sure cure.
