

WM. C. WiLLs, COUNTY JUDGE.
and for common school purposes 5 mills. The year previous, 4 mills. For general county purposes, $103 / 4$ mills, and $1 / 4 \mathrm{mill}$ upon all real and personal property for scalp bounty purposes other than sheep, upon which there was placed a tax of 1 cent per head for the purpose last mentioned. Last year the rate for county purposes was $103-10$ mills, and no scalp bounty tax. The whole rate on the roll of 1898 was 20 mills. On the 1899 roll the whole tax, state, school, county and bounty, was $223-10$ mills, being an increase of 1 mill for school purposes, $7-20$ mills for county purposes, 6-10 mills for state purposes, and $1 / 4$ mill for bounty purposes. In 1898 the total footings of the roll was $\$ 1,744,339$, which included the property embraced in that portion which was detached and which now constitutes part of Wheeler County. The total in 1899, after Wheeler County was organized, was $\$ 1,715,789$. The sum total upon which the tax levy for the year 1900 is $\$ 1,686,322$, exclusive of ex emptions, and $\$ 29,467$ less than in 1899

D. E. TEMPLETON, COUNFK COMMISSIONER.

J. J. SMITH, COUNTY CLERK.

COURT HOUSE.
The property upon which the tax will be raised consists of 28,380 acres of cultivated lands, valued at $$ 144,490 ; 557,526$ acres of non-tillable lands, valued at $$ 531$, 281, and improvements on deeded lands valued at $$ 153,336$, being a sum total in deeded lands and improvements on deeded lands of $$ 829,107$; town lots and improve: ments, $$ 75,097$; improvements on lands not deeded, $$ 33,075 ; 41$ miles of telephone lines valued at $$ 1,755$; steamboats, stationary engines, etc., $$ 8,095$; value of merchandise, $$ 55,433$; furniture, implements, wagons, etc., $$ 40,672$; money, $$ 42,362$; notes and accounts, $$ 136,068$; shares of stock, value, $$ 36,922$; household furniture, $$ 27,395$; number of horses and mules, 12,456 ; value, $$ 105.262$; number of cattle, 17,625 ; value. $$ 176.250$; number of sheep, 149,743; value, $$ 227,101$; number of swine, 713; value, $$ 1,530$; exemptions, $$ 40,362$. Of the lands now known upon the assessment roll as non-tillable, a large portion is simply uncultivated, and is as good, if not better, than much that is now cultivated.

W. C. CONGLETON, SHERIFF.

