Duke and Photographer.

An amusing story involving the Duke of Marlborough and his fiance is now going the rounds, says a Newport correspondent of the New York Advertiser. A few weeks before Mrs. Vanderbilt, her daughter and the Duke left Newport a photographer put his camera in a good position in front of Oliver H. P. Belmont's Fewport resident. While the photographer had his head hidden beneath the black cloth, focusing the house, he felt some one touch his shoulder.

"I say, can't you take us in a group?" said a voice.

The photographer saw before him a slight, well built and boyish looking man and a tall young woman with black hair and eyes and a portly, well fed man with a florid face. Addressing the young man, the photographer answered that he never took personal photographs except in his studio. The young man looked disappointed. The young women said, "Oh, wouldn't it have been fun?" and the trio passed on. A witness of the incident said later to the photographer:

"You're slow. Why didn't you take a picture of those people this afternoon? Didn't you know who they were? The young fellow was the duke of Marlborough, the young woman was Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, and the older man was Oliver H. P. Belmont."

"Lord! But wasn't I slow?" answered the chagrined photographer. "I could have made a good thing out of that picture."

A complete and immediate revolution of transportation methods, involving a reduction of freight charges on grain from the West to New York of from 50 to 60 per cent is what is predicted in the Noyember Cosmopolitan. The plan proposes using light and inexpensive corrugated iron cylinders, hung on a slight rail supported on poles from a cross-arm—the whole system involving an expense of not more than fifteen hundred dollars a mile for construction. The rolling stock is equally simple and comparatively inexpensive. Continuous lines of cylinders, moving with no interval to speak of, would carry more grain in a day than a quadruple track railway. This would constitute a sort of grain-pipe line. The Cosmopolitan also points out the probable abolition of street cars before the coming horseless carriage, which can be operated by a boy on asphalt pavement at a total expense for labor, oil, and interest, of not more than one dollar a day.

In a recent letter to manufacturers Mr. W. F. Benjamin, editor of the spectator, Rushford, N. Y., says: "It may be a pleasure to you to know the high esteem in which Chamberlain's medicines are held by the people of your own state, where they must be best known. An aunt of mine, who resides at Dexter, Iowa, was about to visit me a few years since, and before leaving home wrote me, asking if they were sold here, stating if they were not she would bring a quantity with her, as she did not like to be without them." The medicines referred to are Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds and croup; Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the side and chest and Dhamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. These medicines have been in constant use in Iowa for almost a quarter of a century. The people have learned that they are articles of great worth and merit and unequaled by any other. They are for sale here by all druggists.

America's Great Danger

AN ENGLISH COMMENTARY.

Said an eminent English scientist recently: "The danger that confronts the great American people to-day is not the possible adoption of a wrong financial policy for the nation, or the spread of socialism, or the increase of corruption among public men. All these are bad enough, to be sure, but they are as nothing compared to the terrible national disease—I had almost said national crime—of overwork. The mad rush for wealth is set at a killing pace, and thousands fall by the way every year.

You are likely to be one of the victims!

How do we know? Because it is the exception to find a man or woman of adult age in perfect health. Nervous Disorders are spreading with fearful rapidity. Among the symptoms, are—Backache, Biliousness, Cold Hands and Feet, Dizziness, Hot Flashes, Fluttering Sensation, Fainting, Headache, Hysteria, Irritability of the Heart, Melancholy, Failing Memory, Palpitation, Rheumatism, Short Breath, Sleeplessness, Nervous Dyspepsia, Sexual Debility, Fits, etc.

REV. C. A. CARROLL, pastor First Baptist Church, Yellow Springs, O., writes as follows: "I have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine for the past six months. I find it acts like a charm on the whole nervous system. I have not found its equal in giving immediate relief. Dr. Miles' little Nerve and Liver Pills only need a trial and they will recommend themselves to be the best pills in the market."

"For five years I have suffered from Nervous Prostration, I was unable to work or sleep. The first dose of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine gave me relief, and one thousand dollars would not cover the good it has done me."—JOHN MINCHER, Youngstown, Ohio.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is unsqualled in CURING Nervous Diseases. It contains no opiates or dangerous drugs. Sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
