

Howard Happenings.

From our regular correspondent.

Stockmen in this section are gathering their cattle and disposing of them to the buyers.

Jim Hawkins and family will start this week for Union county where they will spend a few weeks with relatives.

Miss Lucy Cox made a flying trip to Prineville one day last week.

Elgin Parrot will leave this place Monday for his home in Goldendale, Wash.

Bob Demaris is on the sick list this week.

There is quite an excitement in this country over the Cinnabar mines on Lookout mountain.

James Mansfield, of Mitchell, passed through here one day last week enroute to your city.

A. Hughes and wife will start for their home in North Carolina in a short time.

Sam Nelson passed through here last week with a load of fruit, enroute to Prineville, where he expects to dispose of it at remunerative figures. SUNFLOWER.

Paulina Pointers.

From our regular correspondent.

This part of the country was agreeably surprised on the evening of the first by a fine rain.

J. W. Fogle will build a new house on his homestead as soon as he can get the lumber on the ground.

L. D. Claypool and family are at Suplee warm springs for a few days.

We are having cold and cloudy weather with strong indications of snow.

"Bill" Stewart is hauling lumber to finish his house. That looks suspicious, Bill.

The cattle ride will soon be over and then the cow boys will be lonesome. Some of them will have light purses instead of heavy ones.

On the morning of September fifth everybody got up saying, "how nice the fire is this morning." The ice was only half an inch thick.

The threshing machine will be on Beaver creek next week.

Amos Barber has bought the stage line from here to Prineville. Amos has his eye on something, but it's all right.

Mrs. Elmer Clark passed through here last week on her way to Suplee, where she will teach a term of school. She is one of the best teachers in the county. ROSELEAF.

Post Items.

From our regular correspondent.

J. H. Kelly and family left for Scio, Tuesday morning, where they go to visit Mrs. Kelly's mother.

Henry Beck and family returned from Newsom creek Saturday after an absence of several weeks, on the upper Deschutes.

J. H. Gray is hauling the lumber for his new residence which will be begun at once.

J. C. Gillenwater returned Friday from a week's stay in your city.

Many emigrants are passing through our settlement now.

An untimely frost has wilted the potato tops, cooked the roasting ears and "done up" the string beans in our gardens.

E. J. Wakefield spent several days in Prineville this week.

Mrs. J. F. Wilborn and children started Tuesday for a visit to Mrs. Wilborn's mother, at Albany. It is probable that they will remain below this winter for the girls to attend school.
