COAST AND COAST IN WAR OF WORDS

Conference of Charities and Corrections Hears of "Yellow Peril."

NEW YORKER SLAPS WEST

W. A. Gates, of California, Makes Spirited Reply, and Tells of White Women Held in Eastern Chinatowns.

BUFALO, N. Y., June 10.—The East and the West clashed on the question of the reality of the "yellow peril" at today's session of the immigrant section of the annual Conference of Charities and Corrections. W. A. Gates, secretary of the Board of Charities of San Francisco, declared that the yellow peril was more of a menace today than at any time in the past.

"It is also gravely doubted," declared Mr. Gates, "if Japan is faithfully keeping the 'gentleman's agreement' entered into with the United States regarding the restriction of the immigration of the coolie class. A similar agreement entered into with Great Britain in regard to British Columbia has been violated deliberately. Japan recognizes no coolie class. Besides this, 800 Japanese and 5000 Chinese illegally entered over the border of Mexico and Canada in the last year and a half."

The slave trade in Oriental women, Mr. Gates said, was worse today than ever.

Sulzberger Enters Fray.

Cyrus Sulzberger, president of the United Hebrew Charities, of New York, took issue with Mr. Gates. "The condition of the slave trade in Oriental women on the Coast is an indictment of your own white women," declared Mr. Sulzberger. "They should have wiped it out long ago."

"You have just as rotten a Chinese hell in your Mott and Pell streets in New York, as in San Francisco," retorted Mr. Gates, with some show of heat. "Not only brown girl slaves are held in bondage there, but police reports within a week show that half a dozen white girls have been found in New York."

"The Oriental comes here, not for a home, but for gold. He has sent to the Orient over $800,000,000 in the last 30 years. He brings with him centuries of superstition and prejudice. His moral standards are low; usually he has no family. According to the census of 1900, one out of 18 of the Chinese of this country and one out of 24 of the Japanese are females. Of these women but few are virtuous. Most are prostitutes and some are slaves, bought and sold as chattels.

"The white and yellow races have now met on the Pacific, and the contest for supremacy has commenced. What the results will be, we cannot tell. We are certain, however, that our duty lies in preserving those ideals of this Christian civilization which are the foundation stones of the Republic. To do this, the Oriental immigrant must be denied admission to these shores."

What the Press Agents Say.

Last Three Times.

The last three opportunities to see the Baker Stock Company this season and the greatest play of the age, "The Girl of the Golden West," will be tonight, tomorrow matinee and night at the Bungalow. It has played to crowded houses all this, its fifth week, and is a truly wonderful performance. Evening curtain 8 sharp; matinee 2. No one seated while the curtain is up.

Musical Comedy at the Lyric.

The imperial musical comedy company has made a hit at the Lyric, where this week's bill is "A Matrimonial Mix-Up," with 11 musical hits. Lots of pretty girls, a male quartet that is great, clever comedians, bright costumes and good dancing. You don't want to miss it, the hot weather show. Matinee tomorrow.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS.

Marvelous Bill at Orpheum.

Miss a parade if you must, but do not miss the Orpheum show this week for the management has taken special pains to give the theater-going public as great a show as it is possible to have. There are jugglers, horseraces, singing and dancing, violinists, monologists and a splendid programme of music.

Visit the Grand.

Rose Festival celebrations are not complete without a visit to the Grand, where a great collection of vaudeville stars has been assembled for this week. There are singers, dancers, comedians and other entertainers, each one being a recognized artist. Miss Mabel McKinley, the distinguished American soprano, is the headliner.

Banner Show at Pantages.

The Pantages Theater is certainly delivering the goods this week. Bonner, the educated horse, or the horse with the human brain, as he is sometimes called, is creating a sensation at every performance. There is not a dull moment on the programme, as every act on the bill is entertaining.

"La Tosca" at the Star.

This is another of the film d'art pictures written by Victorien Sardou. The leading characters are taken by Messrs. Le Bargy and Alexandre and Mme. Celli-Sorel, of the Acadime Francaise, and M. Mosnier, of L'Odeon, Paris. The picture is a masterpiece and will be recognized as such by the public. Four other excellent pictures are shown besides the illustrated vocalist and saxephone and flute soloist.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Burns-Johnson Fight Pictures.

Beginning next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and continuing every afternoon and night next week, the attraction at the Baker Theater, Third and Yamhill streets, will be the famous Burns-Johnson fight pictures. These are the original pictures taken at the ringside in Australia and are said to be the finest every taken of "manly art."

Female Quartet Coming—Orpheum.

Max Witt's "Singing Colleens," is a feminine quartet, which will appear at the Orpheum next week, presenting a tuneful novelty that is termed "Songs of the Old and New World." Some of their songs are "The Little Colleen I Love," "The Glow Worm," "Castles in the Air" and "When I Marry You." All possess pretty voices.

Tokley's Coming to Grand.

Premier cyclists, the Tokleys, come to the Grand next week. The famous Russian troupe of singers and dancers, the Makeeno company, will also appear. Mann and Franks, entertainers, with a following East and West, return after an absence of two years. The coming bill resembles a collection of feature acts.

Pantages Theater—Next Week.

The following standard vaudeville attractions will be seen at the Pantages Theater next week. The Four Bards, America's greatest gymnasts; Professor Robert's troupe of trained rats, cats and dogs; Terry Twins, the remarkable human duplicates; Adams and Mack, Ella Garrison and company, and Marie Hedlioka, Leo White and moving pictures.

"The Isle of Zaza."

Next week at the Lyric, beginning Sunday matinee, the Imperial Musical Comedy Company will be seen in "The Isle of Zaza," one of the cleverest musical hits of the day. Lots of song hits and some pretty work by the beauty broiler chorus. Regular matinees Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

an exhibition of the latest achievements in the phonograph field at Eilers Piano House continues all this week
