DAILY DEMOCRAT.

GOING THAT WAY.—The Columbian of Astoria, says: "The railroad situation brightens every hour. Sure of one great line, Astoria now finds pleasure in counting up the others that are looking this way. Surveyors are coming down the river, and the Albany & Astoria Co. will have its men in the field next week. The Northern Pacific is not idle, but may be expected to place its engineers at work at any moment. The Coast line from Astoria to San Francisco is far from being a chimeria, and will be built within ten years." This shows that the people of Astoria are awake to their advantages as a seaport, and understand that the volume of their ocean commerce largely depends on their facilities of interior transport. That city is forging ahead rapidly, and those lots remaining unsold in the North Pacific addition to Astoria, now on sale by the Oregon Land Co., afford an opportunity for profitable investment.
