

Tragic Death of Mary O. Douthit.

Miss Mary Osborne Douthit, a pioneer woman of Oregon, author, teacher and prominent in the woman's suffrage movement, died last Saturday at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland after being run down by a street car at Morrison and Lowndes streets, that city. The funeral was held this week from Holman's chapel, Portland, with interment in that city. Rev. William G. Elliot, pastor of the First Unitarian church, to which she belonged, officiated.

Miss Douthit was born in South Carolina, coming to Oregon with her parents in 1853. The family first settled in Linn county near Lebanon, where Mr. Douthit engaged in farming. Then the Douthits removed to Crook county, taking up their residence at Paulina, where Mr. Douthit died in 1876. For a number of years Miss Douthit taught school in this county, later going to Portland, where she instructed the young for 15 years preceding her untimely death. She was an aunt of Harry and Samuel Douthit and Mrs. Luther Claypool of Paulina.

Aside from the prominence she attained in the public eye through her suffrage affiliations, Miss Douthit became well known as the author of "Pioneer Reunion," a book relating to reminiscences of leading Oregon and Washington women, issued in 1905, just prior to the Lewis and Clark exposition. She also wrote a number of brilliant papers on educational and suffragist subjects. She had planned to lecture on pioneer life during August in the coast counties of Oregon.

Ford-Poindexter Nuptials.

William C. Ford and Miss Bernola Poindexter were married last evening at the home of the bride, Dr. Dunsmore officiating. The wedding was a quiet one, only immediate relatives of the young couple being present. Mrs. Dr. Ong, of Portland, a sister of the groom, played the wedding march. Many presents were received by the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Ford left today for Sisters, and when they return will spend a month in the mountains.

C. I. B. Notes.

At the rose display contest held at Templeton's drug store last Saturday the first prize for the finest specimen of a rose was awarded to Miss Mabel Doak. The prize winner was a "Dinsmore," a pink variety, and the prize was $3.50 cash. The first prize for the best collection of roses was awarded to Miss Anna Thronson, who showed about six varieties of choice flowers. Prize, $1.50 cash. Miller & Sons, of the Milton Nursery also offered three prizes for the best specimens of roses grown from stock purchased from their nursery. First prize was won by Mabel Doak, $2.50; second, Anna Thronson, on a "Prince de Rohan," $1.50; and third prize was awarded to Mabel Doak on another specimen of the "Dinsmore."

"Sweet Pea Day" was held at Adamson's drug store yesterday. The display was very meritorious, as this beautiful flower grows to perfection in this climate. First prize for best specimen flower was awarded to Miss Edith King, prize, $2.50. The prize for the largest and best collection of sweet peas was awarded to Mabel Doak, with a showing of over 20 varieties, prize, $1.50 cash. Prize for second best collection, $1, was awarded to Edith King, who showed 12 varieties.

New Attractions at the Club.

The P. A. A. C. is putting forth considerable effort to increase the membership of the club. Besides the shower baths, the new tennis court and the skating rink, a new library room is to be partitioned off next to the billiard parlors. The ladies of the Annex will furnish the library. This auxiliary society is always ready to do more than its share of the work of making the club better and more attractive.

LOCAL MENTION.

P. L. Caples, the hardware drummer, was in Crook county the first of the week.

E. J. Farrel has returned from Portland and is at his old place on the new court house building.

The moving picture show is drawing good crowds. Two shows every night. New programs Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

T. W. Marshall and A. L. Anderson, commercial men from Portland, have been in the city this week looking up business in their respective lines.

Rev. C. P. Bailey, who is very popular with the church-going people of Prineville, will preach at the Union Church on the morning of August 9th.

C. H. Erickson of Bear creek came in Monday for repairs for his mower. He was in the midst of his haying when a break-down made a trip to Prineville necessary.

Dr. Hyde's family will leave the latter part of the week for a trip across the mountains. They go well supplied with "jars" and expect to bring back a load of berries.

A camping party composed of the members of Sheriff Elkins' family, James Elkins of Albany, father of the sheriff, Mrs. Logan, and Millard Elkins, will leave in a few days for an outing on the Matoles.

Miss Brown of Portland, a daughter of Z. M. Brown, arrived Monday morning and is visiting at the home of her uncle, T. M. Baldwin. She expects to go to the country this week to join her father at the Millikan ranch, on Bear creek, and may locate a timber claim in the region of Pine mountain.

G. E. McClure, representing the Realty Associates of Portland, is again in Prineville looking up business for his firm. Mr. McClure says that business was never better with his house. He had with him a $30,000 check from an estate in Heppner for investment with his company. Naturally, he felt good.

The oldest son of Rev. Cook of Powell Buttes met with a painful accident recently. He was thrown from a rig and in some way got tangled in the lines so that he could not break the fall. His ankle was badly sprained. It will be several weeks before he is able to be around again. The lad is brought to town every few days to receive medical treatment.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to those who so kindly extended us their sympathy during the short illness and death of our beloved one, Mrs. Jeanie May Smead.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Long and family.

New Books in High School Library.

Professor Hockenberry has received the following new books for the Crook County High School library: Poe's complete works, consisting of eleven volumes; eight volumes of Hugo's works; twelve volumes of Cooper's works; twelve volumes of Shakespeare's works; ten volumes of Irving's works; five volumes of McCaulay's History of England; five volumes of the History and Government of the United States by such men as Theodore Roosevelt, Henry Cabot Lodge, John Hay and many others. The total volumes received was 75.

Killed a Big Rattler.

H. B. Foster of O'Neil was in town Monday. He says the railroad surveyors are camped at that place and everybody is eagerly awaiting railroad news. Incidentally Mr. Foster mentioned that there were more rattlesnakes seen down his way this season than ever before. His daughter shot one Friday that measured 49 inches long and had eleven rattles.
