WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our regular Correspondent.

Washington, Feb. 26, 1894

Harmony among the democratic senators on the tariff bill is not yet as complete as it might be, although concessions have been made that it was hoped would secure it. Having held the bill until they could see no prospect of benefit to be gained by further delay, the sub-committee this morning submitted it to the full finance committee, which in turn submitted it to a caucus of democratic senators, not for the purpose of compelling any senator to support it, but for a sort of family consultation at which all complaints could be heard and everybody could have a chance to aid in bringing about that harmonious action that will be absolutely necessary to pass the bill, even allowing that the populist senators will vote for it, as they say they will because of the retention of the income tax. The caucus appears to have had a good effect and senators who have been worrying are now smiling over the prospects for democratic unity.

It is expected that the finance committee will at once report the bill to the senate, although there are indications of an intention on the part of the republican members of the committee to attempt to delay action on the plea that they should be given time to prepare a minority report against the bill. They may be given several days to prepare their report, but the democratic sentiment is so strongly in favor of prompt and speedy action that their time is bound to be cut short. They should not really be given a day, as the report can be made at any time after the bill has been reported.

Much uneasiness is felt among senators at the reports concerning the condition of senator Vance's health, which is now said to be continually getting worse. He has not been able to perform any duties at this session, but his friends—that includes everyone who ever came in contact with him—are loth to believe that his illness is hopeless, as press dispatches report it to be.

It has been apparent ever since this congress got down to business that there was a weak spot in the rules of the house, but it was not until the long contest for a quorum to vote on the Bland bill for the coinage of the seigniorage, the end of which is not in sight yet, showed the helplessness of the house in the absence of a voting quorum that members became fully aroused to the necessity of a change. But they are now, and nearly 150 democratic members have signed a call for a caucus to be held as soon as the Bland bill is disposed of, to decide upon the nature of the change to be made. Democrats do not wish the speaker to follow Reed and count a quorum, but a large majority of them want a rule that will prevent members sitting in the house and refusing to vote to make a quorum, and they are going to have one, too.

The senate committee on printing has begun the investigation of the charges of the improper award of the contract for publishing the Patent Office Gazette, but the evidence so far taken amounts to nothing, and the source from which the charges came is of itself almost sufficient to disprove them.

The feeling among southern democrats in congress on account of the recent speech of ex Congressman Abram S Hewitt, of New York, has been greatly exaggerated. With few exceptions the southern congressmen regard the matter with entire indifference. Representative Caruth, of Ky, says: "He is in his dotage," and Representative Mc Millan, of Tenn, "I certainly shall not make Mr Hewitt a national issue by talking about what he says." Many of the older members recall numerous instances of Mr Hewitt's devotion when in the house to protection and opposition to any tariff reform that cut into any of the businesses that he or his father-in-law (the late Peter Cooper) had money invested in and smile at his attack on democratic Congressmen of the present day. When a member of Congress Mr Hewitt enjoyed the reputation of being a common scold.

Senator Faulkner, of W Va, chairman of the Democratic Congressional Campaign committee, has named the following gentlemen as members of the executive committee: Senator Jones, of Ark, White, of Cal Mitchell, of Wis, Smith, of N J, and Pasco of Fla, and Representatives Pigott, of Conn McAleer, of Pa, Bynum, of Ind; McMillan, of Tenn; McRae, of Ark; Whiting, of Mich Heard, of Mo; Wheeler, of Ala; Jones, of Va; and Forman, of Ill; A meeting of the entire committee has been called for tomorrow, to map out the outlines of the campaign work, and to select a smaller committee to take charge of it.

BUCKLE ON YOUR ARMOR.

The call to arms has been made by all the political parties in this state. An election is to be held in June. The public will is to find expression at the polls. This expression, to be permanent should be intelligent and patriotic. Our first duty is that of American citizens. Democrats must buckle on their armor to wage again the battle for the rights of the masses and the integrity of American citizenship. The ancient faith of the fathers as promulgated by Jefferson, Monroe, Jackson and others, should be the democratic slogan. Equal and exact justice to all men of whatever station in life or of whatever political or religious belief is a cardial tenet in the democratic faith and should never be lost sight of. Peace and trade as well as honest, straigt forward friendship with all nations and entangling alliances with none is democratic policy The vigorous support of state governments and state authority in all their rights as being the most competent and fit administration for our municipal and the surest bulwark against all anti-democratic tendencies is safe and sound democratic doctrine, in fact the very chief plank in the democratic creed. The promotion and preservation of the general government in its whole constitional strength as the sheet anchor of our domestic tranquility and security abroad is a strong link in the chainof democratic principles. A jealous care of the right of election by the people, untrammelled by any federal interference, a continual correction of abuses as they crop out, full and complete acquiescence in the decision of thd majority, the vital principle of all republics, the supremacy of the civil over the military authority; economy in all public expenditures in order that labor may be lightly burdened, the honest payment of all national obligations and the preservation of the public faith, encouragement of agriculture and of commerce as its handmaid; the diffusion of information among the masses of the people, and the arrangment of all abuses at the bar of public opinion, freedom of religious belief freedom of the press, and freedom of person under the habeas corpus, fair and equal taxation based upon the amount of property and ability to pay. These constitute the essential principles of the democratic party and are the fundemental tenes of faith of every intelligent American patriot. Let democrats in Oregon place these great essential doctrines in their platform of principles and go before the people and with earnestress of purpose ask their endorsemant.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery purifies the blood. By this means, it reaches, builds up, and invigorates every part of the system. For every blood-taint and disorder, and for every disease that comes from an inactive liver or impure blood, it is the only remedy so sure and effective that it can be guaranteed.

If the "Discovery" fails to benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back.

These diseases are many. They're different in form, but they're like in treatment. Rouse up the torpid liver into healthful action, thoroughly purify and enrich the blood, and there's a positive cure. The "Discovery" does this, as nothing else can. Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness; all Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; every form of Scrofula, even Consumption (or Lung-scrofula) in its earlier stages; and the most stubborn Skin and Scalp Diseases, are completely cured by it.

ALWAYS OPEN—the offer made by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It's a reward of $500 cash for an incurable case of Catarrh. The only question is—are you willing to try it, if the makers are willing to take the risk?
