M'NARY FAVORS BENHAM FALLS DAM POWELL BUTTE IS AGAIN WINNER OF PRIZE AT REDMOND

"After having inspected every irrigation project in the state of Oregon, I wish to go on record in saying that I consider the Benham Falls project the first project in Oregon on which government funds should be spent, and that the dam sight at that place which by the erection of a dam 54 feet in height, would store 300,000 acre feet of water, is one of the best undeveloped dam sights in the entire United States," said United States Senator Charles L. McNary to a group of citizens at the Prineville Hotel.

Medium to small of stature, light complexioned, blue eyed, young in appearance, very pleasing and convincing in manner and address, the Senator made his first appearance in this city today, and made a hit with those who heard his brief talk.

Being chairman of the irrigation committee in the senate, the senator will have special power in getting the appropriation mentioned.

He insisted that the sage should be taken from the local landscape, solos erected instead, and that all large irrigated ranches be cut into many small ones.

He believes that when this is done, Prineville will become a thriving business center, and that the future is bright for this community.

Senator McNary will address a mass meeting at the club hall tonight.

Walter L. Tooke will address a meeting at the club hall Tuesday night, which will be in the nature of a republican rally.

SEEKS STUDENTS HERE

Young Men Wanted To Study For The Ministry

Clarence D. Smith, field secretary of the Kimball School of Theology, Salem, Oregon, visited Prineville on Sunday last in the interests of Kimball.

It is wholly independent of Wilamette University, in administration and maintenance, but its students have free admission to courses of study offered by the University.

The object of Mr. Smith's visit in the city is the recruiting of young men for the ministry, and the securing of further financial support for the school.

COMPLETE CITY

TICKET ANNOUNCED

The ticket from which voters will choose their city officials for the next two years follows:
• Will Wurzweller, mayor; Geo. F. Euston, treasurer; E. O. Hyde and F. A. Fessler, recorder; Glenn Hendrickson, I. W. Ward, H. G. Davis, H. W. Howard, E. H. Brent, Ross R. Robinson, G. W. Noble, Geo. Nicolai and H. R. Lakin, councilmen.

HARDING 250 TO 112 PRINEVILLE'S CHOICE

In the straw vote conducted by the Prineville Drug Company, Prineville's Rexal Store, Harding is the choice of Crook county people by more than two to one. Yesterday morning, the vote to date was 250 for Harding and 112 for Cox, which proves positively that the Republican nominee is the people's choice in this part of the state.

The total Oregon vote is 5694 for Harding and 3102 for Cox, and the vote of the whole United States is 482,097 to 316,072, in favor of Harding.

The ballot is conducted by the 5,000 Rexal stores throughout the U. S., and is regularly reported to all of them.

CIRCUIT COURT

POSTPONED AGAIN

Because of the fact that witnesses and jurymen were in attendance two days this week, without a Circuit judge, court was set over until the March term, and all Circuit Court matters will be considered at that time.

Judge Duffy is said to have been ill, and his substitute did not arrive.

CORNER STONE LAID FOR BEND METHODIST CHURCH

Last Wednesday the cornerstones of the new Methodist Church of Bend was laid. Rev. and Mrs. Gallaher and Mrs. Ada Millean attended the services from Prineville. Mrs. Mill can had the honor of being the only certified lady delegate present. A luncheon was given for the visitors at the Pilot Butte Inn by the Commercial club, and the ladies of the Presbyterian church gave a banquet in the evening. During the afternoon the mills and other interesting points of the town were visited. Bend residents were lavish in the praises of that city, and when Mr. Gallaher made a speech, he told them that he would show them that Prineville was on the map.

DEATH OF JAS. M. HAYES OCCURS SUDDENLY

Jas. M. Hayes, a prominent rancher of the Post country, died Thursday night at the home of George Wiley, in Prineville.

Mr. Hayes was in town on a business trip, and as usual stopped at the Wiley home. He seemed in excellent health when he retired, about ten thirty, but his calls aroused Mr. Wiley a little after eleven, and he immediately called the doctor. Death occurred a little later, caused by failure of the valves of the heart to work. Mr. Hayes was conscious until the end.

Mrs. Hayes arrived in town from the ranch on Friday, and the funeral was held Sunday afternoon, at two o'clock, from the Methodist church. The Odd Fellows, to which order Mr. Hayes belonged, were present in a body. Three brothers, John, William and Ed Hayes were in town for the services.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"The Friendly Church"

Services at the regular hours next Lord's Day. Church hour every Wednesday at 7:30 P.M. The Near East Cross Roads of the World by Hall, is being studied. A most cordial invitation extended to all not worshipping elsewhere.

MUCH ACTIVITY NOW IN LIVESTOCK

The greatest activity for months has been noted the past three weeks about the Prineville stockyards, where many cars of sheep and cattle have been delivered, and graded up for shipment to various points.

Sheep have been more active than cattle during the past weeks, several solid train loads of them being shipped to Chicago, Denver, Montana and Idaho feeding points and to Colorado and Wyoming.

Feeder lambs have generally brot the growers nine cents per pound at the local stock yards, from here they will go to the feeding centers above mentioned to be fitted for market by feeding alfalfa, beet tops and beet pulp.

Yearling weathers have sold as low as $5.00 per head, and breeding ewes seem to have a market price established from eight to eleven dollars per head for first quality stuff.

Among the recent cattle shipments were two cars of feeders to Biggs, Saturday, by Frank Fulton, seven cars by Kidwell & Trowbridge, two cars by Curtis Keys, one car by Ed Myers and one car by Ike Bland, all the latter to North Portland.

Nine cars of sheep were shipped to Chicago by Thatcher & Snyder, yesterday, and 25 cars were shipped out for the same market last week, by the same shippers.

Shipments already arranged for next Saturday include, two cars of sheep for W. L. Gage, two of cattle for Tom Houston and seven cars cattle for F. M. Wood.

CORNETT SALE AD CARRIES WRONG DATE

Because of the fact that the compositor dropped a line while setting the advertisement of Cornett & Co. in the Journal of last week, the ad was made to read that the sale was to start on October 30, while the fact is that the sale will close on that date, having opened on Saturday of last week, and we are glad to say is being excellently patronized, unusual bargains in all dry good lines being offered.

In doing our part to rectify the error, which printers, being only human, are sure to make sometimes, we printed and mailed placards to subscribers throughout the territory calling attention to the facts, at our own expense.

While we are sorry that this or any other mistake has occurred in this office, every dark cloud has its silver lining and the scores of people that brot the error to the attention of the advertiser proves conclusively to him and everyone else interested that everybody reads the Journal ads, and pays attention to what they say.
• Never again can any advertiser or prospective advertiser tell us that the people don't all read the Journal ads.

SPECIAL MEETING OF ARTISANS

A special meeting of the United Artisans has been called for Saturday, October 23rd. H. S. Hudson, Supreme Master Artisan, will visit the lodge in his official capacity, and there will be business of importance discussed, and initiation.

A good attendance is especially requested. Excellent refreshments will be served. All visiting Artisans will be made welcome.

AMERICAN LEGION PLAN FOR DANCES

Halloween Ball First on List

At a meeting held last Friday night, it was decided that Crook County Post, No. 29, American Legion would give a series of dances this winter for the benefit of the exchequer of the local post, providing that the plan is backed up by the support of local people.

The first dance to be given will be a Halloween Ball, in the Club hall, on Friday night, the 29th of this month. For this dance the boys are planning on procuring the best of music available in Central Oregon, and many novel features which will set the Legion Dances apart from the ordinary sort of dances are promised.

It should be a matter of local pride to see that these dances given by the Legion are well attended, and thus secure for Prineville good, clean, dances, with a lot of pep, and the money going to a good cause and benefiting Prineville.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

M. R. Gallaher, Pastor

General Jan Christian Smuto says: "For doubt it not that we are at the beginning of a new century. The old world is dying around us; let it also die in us. Once more in the history of the human race we hear the great Creative Spirit utter those tremendous words: 'Behold, I make all things new. Old ideas of wealth, of poverty, of class and social relations, of moral and spiritual values are rapidly changing. The old political formulas sound hollow, the old landmarks by which we used to steer are disappearing beneath a great flood. The furnace through which we have passed has melted the hard crust of our life, and the old fixtures and certainties are fluid once more.' In this period of uncertainties we must have a strong ship that can weather the storm or we shall be wrecked. Let us look into some phases of these great subjects on Sunday at 11 a.m.

The evening sermon will take us on a quest of heaven. This is a place well worth looking into. The "Home" church will welcome you.

Last Sunday evening some of the young people of the Methodist church met and formed a temporary organization of an Epworth League, which will hold its first meeting Sunday night at 8:30, with the pastor, as leader. All young people are invited.

CELEBRATES EIGHTH BIRTHDAY

Margaret Adams celebrated her eighth birthday last Saturday afternoon with a party to which eleven of her girl friends were invited.

The guests came masked, and had a fine time trying to tell who was who, and playing games, and blowing out the candles on the fine, big birthday cake.

The girls who attended the party were: Helen and Edra O'Neil, Lucille Rowell, Mona McCullum, Marlan Bolter, Elmerine Kaylor, Margaret and Ruth Trunkey, Margaret Luckey, Laura Lakin, and Jean Ledford.

Initiative measure number 310 on the ballot to be voted in November, will give to Oregon a port equal to any port on the Pacific Coast. You are vitally interested in the passage of this bill. It will not increase your taxes. The cost is borne by the Port of Portland, but all Oregon must vote on the measure. Vote 310 YES on the ballot November second.

OCHOCO WAREHOUSE CO. MOVING WHEAT

The Ochoco Warehouse Company is very busy this week shipping the wheat brought in by local growers to the Pacific Grain Co. The wheat from this section of the country is intended for export to foreign lands.

The warehouse now has on the floor 20,000 sacks, which crowds the room almost to capacity, with more arriving. One carload was shipped yesterday, making a total of five cars already shipped.

Among those who have brought their grain to Prineville for shipping are: G. W. Slayton, W. I. Dishman, Frank Townner, G. H. Fertig, E. N. Hall, C. W. Elkins, Geo. Reams, C. O. O'Neil, Dave Grimes, John Grimes, Sam Reynolds, Roy McCord, T. J. Minger, B. B. Balfour, C. O. Pritchett, Guy Lafollette, Warren Brown, Leo Battinger, R. A. Bland and E. S. Barnard.

Prices range from $1.50 to above $2.00 per bushel, fluctuating with the Chicago and Portland markets.

SCHEE-NEWSOM WEDDING LAST THURSDAY EVENING

Ray Schee and Mrs. Nell Newsom were quietly married last Thursday in the presence of immediate friends and relatives, at the new home of the groom in East Prineville. Rev. Laslette of Portland performed the ceremony.

The bride and groom made a short trip to Bend and returned Saturday to Prineville to make their home.

Both are prominent in business circles of Prineville, Mr. Schee being in the real estate business, and active in Commercial Club work, and for several years past, manager of the Inter-State Fair. Mrs. Schee has been employed as head sales lady for Cornett & Co.

AEROPLANE READY TO MAKE FLIGHTS

The aeroplane which caused so many necks to crane yesterday afternoon, flying over the city, was the one which arrived during the Inter-State Fair.

The plane has been undergoing an overhauling in Biggs meadow and is now in perfect condition for flights, according to the pilot, Arthur McKenzie.

The machine will be in the Biggs meadow all day tomorrow, and if any one wants to go up before they leave, they can have the experience. "Thrills" may be had for the asking by the passenger, if they desire something a little out of the ordinary.

The plane will go to Redmond for flights before proceeding to Portland.

A group of young folks made the trip to Redmond Saturday to witness the football game in the Wilson car. The party consisted of: Miss Marjorie Wilson, Mrs. D. W. Medley, Miss Myrtle Lister, Raymond Smith, Miss Elsie Grant and Mrs. E. J. Wilson.

AMERICAN LEGION TO HAVE CHARGE OF HOUSTON FUNERAL

The body of Elmer Houston left New York City last Saturday, along with a number of other heroes of the great war, and is expected to arrive in Portland tomorrow afternoon, on the three o'clock train.

His father received a telegram, stating that the body had been shipped, and the local post of the American Legion has been notified, and a military funeral will be held.

Powell Butte community exhibit at the Redmond Potato Show and fair last week, won the $100 first prize for the best display, which is but repeating their performance of the previous week at the Oregon-Inter State Fair in this city.

The award of the two $100 prizes to this community demonstrates two of the best things that any community town or state can boast of.

First, they have the products, than which there are none better in the land, second, they have the people who can and do co-operate, bring out their stuff, and show to the world what they have.

We have given much space in the past to the discussion of the Powell Butte spirit, which has but one rival in the county, and that is Post, the home of the Post Rabbit Club.

In the present instance, a committee was appointed to bring out the exhibit, by the community club and the difference between this committee and other committees is that the Powell Butte folks work when asked by their neighbors to do so.

This committee was composed of S. D. Mustard, chairman, Geo. C. Truesdale, president of the co-operative association, Mrs. Bussett, Mrs. Fischer, Geo. W. Wells and Frank Kiszler.

The prize money awarded to the association will be used by the organization in various community works, in which its members are interested, all for the betterment of conditions at Powell Butte.

The organization owns its own hall and grounds, and is an example that any community might well attempt to follow.

OCHOCO ELECTION CARRIER BY 34 TO 44

The special election called for approval or rejection of the special tax levy in the Ochoco Irrigation District, approved the levy by a vote of 34 to 44 on Saturday.

SOMETHING ABOUT "SHORE ACRES"

"Shore Acres" is a story of plain New England folk on the rockribbed coast of Maine. Martin Berry, a stern old-lighthouse keeper, forbids his spirited daughter Helen to speak to the man she loves. It is Martin's fondest hope that Helen will marry Josiah Blake, the village banker.

Helen refuses to obey her father, and elopes with her sweetheart on the "Liddy Ann," a vessel bound down the coast. Her father learns of her departure, and, insane with rage, he prevents his brother, Nathan, from lighting the beacon that will guide the vessel safely out thru the rocks of the harbor. Desperately the two men battle together in the lighthouse—one to save the vessel, the other to destroy her. A sou'easter is raging, and during their struggle the "Liddy Ann" goes on the rocks, and the passengers are left to the mercy of the storm. The scene fairly makes the nerves tingle with excitement. What befalls thereafter is thrillingly unfolded in this picturation of the greatest American play of the century. "Shore Acres" is a big human drama of thrill and heart throbs, replete with delicious humor and tender pathos.

At the Lyric Theatre Saturday evening.

A social hour followed the Eastern Star meeting last Thursday night with several guests. Special refreshments were served by the hostesses for the evening in the form of Chili Con Carne, which on account of the cold weather was much enjoyed.
