HELP WANTED—MALE.

AMBITIOUS MEN WANTED.

Salaries $1800 to $25,000 per year, any intelligent man may qualify.
INTERSTATE COMMERCE
"THE NEW PROFESSION."

The New Federal railroad law, effective August, 1910, necessitates the employment by 500,000 large rated concerns and 30,000 commercial associations of men who can handle traffic work under the new system and save millions of dollars lost annually.

G. A. McNeil, of the Interstate Commerce Department, La S. E. U., will interview men interested in bettering their condition while holding present position and show how men may qualify through co-operation with 106 traffic experts representing some of the largest industries in the country, for a position in the "New Profession," not overcrowded, and practically pay for this co-operation after being placed in a position. "Efficiency is shown in the pay envelope." Call or address, with phone number, G. A. McNeil, Portland Hotel, 2 to 9 P. M.
