IN JAIL AT LAST.

Stone, Who Led Portland a Merry Chase For Timber Land in Alpea Last Autumn.

Oscar C. Stone, who last fall lead-ed-as-Portlanders on timberless timber land claims is at last in the county jail in Portland.

The lands on which the Portlanders filed, it will be remembered were in the Five Rivers country, and are practically barren of merchantable timber, while Stone showed the timber hunters fine timber southwest of Dusty and made them believe that the latter was the timber on which they were to make filings. The incomings and outgoings of the party, together with the bold rascality of Stone was published in detail in the Corvallis Times at the time. Through the articles the Portlanders became aware of the fraud and began a system of investigation, several of them demanding a return of the $100 that each had paid Stone for the timber locations. Before, however, sufficient evidence could be gathered, Stone disappeared from Portland, and could not be found.

The notorious swindler was landed in a Portland jail Wednesday evening of last week. He was arrested at Sand Point, Idaho, a few days ago.

After leaving Portland, Stone went to Butte, Montana, where he was arrested and sentenced to serve three months in jail for forging checks to the amount of $3.500 on Portland banks.

After his release from the Butte jail, Stone went to Sand Point, Idaho, and engaged in the practice of law with a young man there named Johnson for a partner. There he took the name Clark, and being of fine address and polished speech, he quickly took a high place as a lawyer and citizen among the Sand Pointers. In the interim, he had married Bessie Louise Guinean, daughter of Thomas Guinean, of Portland, and a well known writer and a social favorite, and the Clarks were soon leaders of the smart set in Sand Point social circles.

One fateful day, however, the sheriff of the county recognized Lawyer Clark as Oscar C. Stone, wanted in Portland for forgery and other swindling operations, and swooped down on him. Stone took the arrest very cooley, seemed anxious to avoid publicity, persuading his captors to keep the matter dark for the present.

In company with the deputy sheriff, whom he introduced as an intimate friend to people he managed to collect several accounts for the expenses of his wife to go with him. To his law partner he explained that the sickness of his wife's people in Portland made it necessary for both to leave for the Coast at once. To the deputy he lamented that his identity had been discovered so soon, as he had strong hopes of securing the nomination for congress next fall.

As a swindler, Stone is meteoric in his success. Suave and convincing in his address, his power over men and women is remarkable. When Willis Vidito and John Hyde told his Portland victims that there was no timber on the land they were to file on, they went to Stone and with a succession of inventions and subterfuges he easily allayed the suspicions of his victims, and led them on to be plucked. About $3.500 is the sum out of which he swindled them in spite of the efforts to save them.—Ex.

Secretary Hitchcock is still in the ring, against Oregon, as was evidenced by the turning down of Knowles for the registership of the LaGrand land office, after he had been unanimously recommended by the entire Oregon delegation. While our delegation is getting turned down on their recommendations, and our state is getting to be placed in reserve, we are getting lots of free advertising, through the Almighty and most powerful Hitchcock, who sits upon his throne at Washington like a Czar, dictating to we Oregonians, whom he considers as nincompoops, and entirely unfit to attend to our own affairs. How good it is to have an all wise person to look after us.—Ex.

Oregon's greatest State Fair will open next Monday, Sept. 14th. The exhibition promises to excel that of any former year, and prospects for a large attendence throughout the week are bright. The livestock exhibit will be unusually attractive and some of the finest horses, cattle, sheep, goats and hogs in the United States will be shown. A splendid racing programme has been prepared, and lovers of fast horses can not fail to get their money's worth The display in the main pavilion will be larger than ever before. The management of the State Fair is in good hands, and the annual exhibitions are the best possible advertisement of Oregon's wonderful resources.

Wheat is soaring away up around the 80 cent mark, and yet we read or hear little about it. In these days of unparalleled prosperity, the farmers are becoming so accustomed to high prices for everything they have to sell that 80-cent wheat excites no particular surprise or comment.

The world's trotting record was broken at Readville, Mass., one day last week by a mare bred in California. The time was 2 minutes. The first quarter was made in 30½ seconds, the half mile 60¾ seconds, the third quarter 1:31 and the mile in 2 minutes.

Owes His Life to a Neighbor's Kindness.

Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Summer counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea; was attended by two physicians who gave him little, if any, relief, when a neighbor learning of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours. For sale by all dealers.

Fearful Odds Against Him.

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies. "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 25c. Guaranteed by E. C. Peery, druggist.

Returning leave Newport at 5:30 p. m. arriving in Albany at 10:30 p. m.

Three day ani season tickets will be good going and returning on these trains. This should prove popular with the traveling public and a liberal patronage will be the best appreciation.

What is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in constipation, headache or liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly readjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at Irvine's drug store.

CATARRH.

Symtoms, Effects, Treatment and Cure by D. Darrin at Revere House Albany.

Among the chief chronic diseases which effect the human frame, catarrh is the most prevalent, most offensive, most productive of discomfort and a variety of distressing and dangerous complications. Its earliest and most prominent symptom is a discharge from the head, varying in its nature in different cases, and even in the same individual at different times. It may be a thin colorless fluid, or of gluey, starch like substance. Generally, however, it is thick, purulent, or mucu purulent matter, either ash colored or of a deep green tint, occasionally streaked or flecked with blood. So copious and offensive is jes discharge in many cases that patients express the belief that their heads are "one mass of corruption."

"Hawking."

Much of the discharge passes backward, either dropping in the throat or collecting as a tough, viscid, tenacious phlegm, behind and above the soft palate to the passage between the throat and the head. Its lodgment embarrasses respiration and creates a constant and irresistible desire to relieve the discomfort by drawing the offensive substance into the throat by a loud insufflation through the nose, so as then to be able to eject it by a disagreeable "hawking."

Fatal Effects of Catarrh.

The swallowing of catarrhal secretions deranges the function of the stomach, causing indigestion, loss of appetite and health. Debility, paleness, lassitude, headache and disturbance of mind soon follow. In some instances the mental affection is one of irritability, the patient being unduly annoyed by all the perplexities of life. In others the prominent feeling is that of melancholy, depression of spirits, when the invalid can see no hope in the future for himself or his affairs. Catarrhal deafness is almost sure to result in a majority of cases.

Offensive Breath.

In the most advanced stages the discharges are generally of an offensive odor, causing great annoyance to one's friends and the patient himself while the sense of smell remains. This annoyance from the odor becomes almost beyond endurance, more especially when the disease assumes the form of ozaena, and the delicate bones of the nose becomes diseased.

Deformity of the Nose.

In cases where the bones of the nose become diseased, not only is offensiveness of the breath greatly increased, but there is a liability to serious personal deformities, among which are flattening of the nose.

Consumption and Death.

Catarrh afflictions, unchecked by treatment, are prone to extend by continuity of surface along the natural air passages to the substance of the lung, thus causing consumption and death. In this connection it should also be remembered that the air which enters the lungs of a catarrhal patient is every breath of it poisoned by the foul secretions of the diseased surface. By such air the blood cannot be properly purified and made fit to impart healthy vigor in its mending circuit to all and every part of the animal mechanism. One would suppose that this consideration alone would be sufficient to induce every person thus afflicted to make early application for relief.

Treatment and Cure.

By the medicinal and electric system of treatment, which Dr. Darrin has adopted and pursued for years with uniform success, a complete and permanent cure of this repulsive disorder can be effected. Thus, he has demonstrated in thousands of cases, representing the disease in every form and all its various stages of development. His applications are made to reach the diseased parts in the most direct and positive manner, instantaneously penetrating ever cell and cavity of the head, communicating with the nostrils, and subjecting every portion of the membrane to the healing action of the remedy employed, without causing the least pain or unpleasant sensation. The effected cavities are thoroughly cleansed from incrusted morbific matter, the offensive smell is removed and relief from other troublesome symptoms is almost immediately experienced. The discharge soon diminishes, irritation is allayed, the inflammation subsides, ulcerations are made to heal, and finally a radical and permanent cure is effected.

Numerous testimonials have appeared in this paper during the past few weeks from those who thought they owed it to the doctor, as well as hundreds of like sufferers, to speak of the good work that has been done for them. Dr. Darrin has been persuaded to remain at the Revere House, Albany until Dec. 1, only.

A Boy's Wild Ride for Life.

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown, of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from Asthma; but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Grip prove its matchless merit for all Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Peery's drug store.

CONSTIPATION

Constipation is nothing more than a clogging of the bowels and nothing less than vital stagnation or death if not relieved. If every constipated sufferer could realize that he is allowing poisonous filth to remain in his system, he would soon get relief. Constipation invites all kind of contagion. Headaches, biliousness, colds and many other ailments disappear when constipated bowels are relieved. Thedford's Black-Draught thoroughly cleans out the bowels in an easy and natural manner without the purging of calomel or other violent cathartics.

Be sure that you get the original Thedford's Black-Draught, made by The Chattanooga Medicine Co. Sold by all druggists in 25 cent and $1.00 packages.

NORCOM, ARK., May 25, 1901.
I cannot recommend Thedford's Black-Draught too highly. I keep it in my house all the time and have used it for the last ten years. I never save my children any other laxative.
