A Misunderstanding All Around

As the result of a little jealousy there came very near being a great disturbance with "His Wife," in one case, and in the other the cause was due to the close resemblance of "Two Suits." Although serious and somewhat uncomfortable, for those concerned, it was at the same time quite laughable. You can see it demonstrated in two thousand feet of film at the Savoy theater tonight. Remember, however, that the films are not of the class used for the past few months, but first-class, up-to-now motion pictures, and they will be much better after tonight. Seeing is believing. Two clever little fellows will put on a three-round boxing exhibition that is a scream, tonight, also Friday and Saturday nights, and Saturday matinee. This will be a treat in addition to the 4000 feet of film. Watch for the numerous changes next week. All we ask is for a portion of your patronage, a hog alone wants it all. 301*
