HUGH S. SMITH.

The many kinds of darting and burning—stabbing pains and hair-raising U-Boat attacks—to which the U. S. submarine chaser, Semara, participated from the Mediterranean to the North Sea, furnishes one of the most interesting chapters of the entire World War.

The price that Hugh S. Smith, warrant officer on the Semara, paid for his valiant part in these hazardous encounters, was a nervous system so shattered that he broke down completely.

"What I saw and went through," said Mr. Smith, "would leave its mark on any man. For two full years my nerves were at high tension all the time.

"When I got back to God's country, the reaction set in and I broke down completely. I was terribly nervous and irritable, had no appetite and could not sleep except when exhausted. I was also about fifteen pounds under weight, all of which made me realize something must be done.

"I resigned from the Navy but soon found out new enjoyment and during made a improvement in my physical condition.

"Finally a friend persuaded me to try Tanlac and after taking six or eight bottles of Tanlac I had gained fifteen pounds, was back to my normal weight, and felt completely recovered. Tanlac was a life-saver to me, and I heartily endorse it."

Mr. Smith is branch manager for the Singer Sewing Machine Co., at 191 Flatbush Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., and resides at 435 Westervelt Ave., Staten Island.

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35 million bottles sold. Accept no substitute. Adv.

JURY IN FOSTER TRIAL HOPELESSLY SPLIT, EXCUSED

AT MONROE, Mich., April 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—Not quite in 71 hours and 15 minutes deliberation did the jurors in the trial of William Z. Foster of Chicago, charged with criminal syndicalism, winner form the stand taken on their first ballot, voting each time six for acquittal and six for conviction, from about 12 o'clock Wednesday morning until 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when the jury was dismissed, hopelessly deadlocked.

Thirty-eight ballots were taken during that time. Mrs. Minerva Olson, the only woman on the jury, was one of those who voted for acquittal. Five of the six who stood for conviction are farmers. The other is a crossing watchman.

Inability of the jurors to agree was regarded as a victory by Foster. Whether he will be tried again will not be decided until after the trial of Charles Rothenberg of Cleveland, former member of the communist party executive committee.

SCREEN

"Hearts Aflame" Thrills.

"Hearts Aflame," was seen for the first time yesterday at the Page theater. Blazing of the magnificent forest fire scene was realistic to the extreme, and it supplied a thrill to the large audience which saw and praised it.

Probably nothing more vivid and intense as this forest fire has yet been presented in photoplay form. The scene has been remarkably photographed; one can actually see the flames lick at the trees which rapidly give way before the conflagration. Wolves and bears, frightened from their hiding places, leap madly before the camera in an attempt to escape the devastating flames. And through the blazing forest, an old locomotive driven by a young girl, slowly makes its way in an attempt to reach a powder magazine.

Frank Keenan is seen in the role of an old millionaire, an ex-lumberman; Anna Q. Nilsson is the girl of the Michigan woods; and Craig Ward makes a strong impression as the young hero. Richard Headrick, Russell Simpson, Richard Tucker, Stanton Heck, Martha Mattox, Walt Whitman, Joan Standing, Ralph Cloninger and Irene Hunt have other important roles.

"Forgotten Law"

A gripping and sensational photoplay, "The Forgotten Law," which is now playing at the Rialto theatre. It is one of the most dramatic stories seen in some time, and it is acted and produced with excellent judgment and fine skill.

A cast of exceptional excellence is seen in the roles of the photoplay. Milton Sills enacts the part of Richard Jarnette, a stern, loyal man, whose younger brother Victor (played by Jack Mulhall) is the opposite of him in morality. The results of Victor's dissipations are suffered chiefly by his lovely wife, the character enacted by Cleo Ridgely.

PILES!

There is no suffering like the torture from piles. This continual suffering reacts upon the nervous system and may eventually cause a complete physical breakdown. It is not necessary to endure the torture from piles when quick, sure relief is right at hand. Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment relieves piles at once and not only that, when this treatment is persisted in, it affords lasting benefit. Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is nationally famous as a remedy for piles, eczema, ring worm, sore feet, hives, insect bites, pimples, blackheads, chafing, chapped hands, chilblains, frost bite and all skin irritations. "I used Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment for Piles and got relief from it. That is about fifteen years ago and I always use Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment when another attack of piles is coming on me. There is no better Medicine for Piles that I know of that will give you better relief."
