Smoker, Banquet and Business Session at Commercial Club and Admen's Luncheon to Be Features of Entertainment.

Replies coming to the Portland Commercial Club to C. C. Chapman, secretary of the organization of Jobbers and Manufacturers of Portland which was formed about three weeks ago to promote "buyers' excursions" to Portland, indicate that a great representation from the trade district of this city will come here September 1-6, the week set for the excursions.

Tickets are to be placed on sale by the transportation companies August 28 to September 3. Among the entertainment features planned for the week are a reception to visiting merchants and families at the Commercial Club, a smoker, banquet and business meeting, a luncheon with the Ad Club and other affairs.

GOOD THINGS IN MARKET

THOUGH Oregon peaches are coming forward, with promise of a good crop, beautifully colored and of fine flavor, they had to yield the first place to grapes this week. The newest variety to market of these is Tokay, which are bringing 20 cents a pound. Black Princess, Malagas, and sweetwater are each two pounds for 15 cents, or 35 cents a basket; sweet Malagas are 40 cents a basket.

Peaches are to be had at 15 cents a dozen; two dozen for a quarter, and for less choice stock, from 25 cents down to 10 cents a box. Peach plums, new this week, are 30 cents a basket; Oregon this week supplies green-gage plums at 25 cents a basket; damson plums, two dozens for 15 cents, and plums, of still more plump appearance, for which a quarter is asked for the same quantity. Nectarines, which are just coming in, are 50 cents a basket.

A large consignment of Bartlett pears, from The Dalles, made one feel proud of our State and its products. They are particularly fine, and 30 cents a dozen seemed moderate indeed. Pineapples are 10 cents a pound; ripe black figs, 25 cents a pound; bananas, good, a dozen for a quarter; the flat, red variety, 50 cents a dozen; pumpkins—the first of the season—are 4 cents a pound. Oranges range from 70, 60, 50 down to 25 cents a dozen; lemons 35 and 40 cents. California grape fruit, two for 15 cents.

Watermelons are showing in larger quantities. Oregon-grown are 3 cents; California, 2 cents a pound; old-fashioned musk melons are 10, 15 and 20 cents each; casabas, 20, 30 and 35 cents each. The Dalles sends canteloupes that bring from 5 to 6 cents each, up to two for a quarter.

New amongst apples this week are crabs. A most creditable display from Hood River retails for 5 cents a pound. The season for jelly-making is reported to be right here and now, and housekeepers are advised to take notice. Good Gravensteins are bringing 20 and 25 cents a dozen, and Astrakhans can be had for the same price. The general apple crop is reported a good average.

The small fruits were represented by huckleberries, at 30 cents a pound; a few boxes of blackberries at four for a quarter, and one lone, little box of cherries!

Among vegetables, one of the newcomers for the week is Brussels sprouts, retailing at two pounds for a quarter. Oregon growers are to the front with a good crop of tomatoes, for which 5 cents a pound is being given, but for some choice stock four pounds for a quarter is the quotation. Corn, of by no means "lean" appearance, can be had freely at 20 cents a dozen; cauliflower, 15 and 20 cents a head; egg plant and green peppers are each 10 cents a pound. New this week is Hubbard squash, at 4 cents a pound, while the "Summer" variety are 5 cents each; sweet potatoes, 5 cents a pound; "Irish," 12 pounds for a quarter; celery, two heads for 15 cents; fancy celery hearts, 30 cents a bunch; artichokes, two for 25 cents; head lettuce, three for 10 cents; okra (or gumbo), 20 cents a pound; cucumbers are two for 5 cents, but greenhouse stock are quoted three for 10 cents. The "stand-bys"—turnips, beets, onions, radishes, garlic, etc., were of unusually fresh appearance and abundant in quantity.

In the fish market, that luxury for average purses, black bass, was on sale this week at 40 cents a pound. The supply comes from lower down the coast than Oregon, though, for in this State the months of July, August and September are "closed" to the fishing of this epicurean variety. However, salmon at 20 cents a pound, or two pounds for 35 cents; black cod, 15 cents a pound; smelt, two pounds for 25 cents; halibut and salmon cheeks, the first 15 cents a pound, and the second 20 cents a dozen; halibut, 15 cents a pound or two pounds for a quarter; shrimps, 20 cents a pound; crabs, 25 cents each, and lobsters, 40 cents a pound, make a more than passable selection for a time of year when fish are generally considered "out of season."

For those who must have a daily allotment of butcher meat, whatever the temperature, it may be of interest to know, of steaks, that the best porterhouse retails at 35 cents a pound; T-bone, 30; tenderloin and rib, 25 cents; sirloin, 22 and round steak 20 cents a pound, while "soup-pot" boiling meat ranges from 12½ to 18 cents a pound.

In the poultry market, spring chickens, from 1¼ to 2½ pounds in weight, are selling at 35 cents a pound; those three pounds in weight, retail at 30 cents a pound; hens and geese are both quoted at 25 cents a pound; ducks, 75 cents each; for squabs, 50, 60 and 75 cents each is asked.

Ranch eggs, of the "strictly fresh" brand, still hold steadily at 35 cents a dozen. With most people, "no other need apply." Butter is quoted at 40 cents a pound, or 80 cents a roll.

DIECK'S ORDER IS DRASTIC

City Commissioner Demands Tests of Bituminous Paving Material.

City Commissioner Dieck yesterday mailed to all contractors engaged in laying bituminous wearing surface one of the most drastic orders that has yet been issued by any of the city officials since the commission form of government went into effect. By its terms it will be impossible hereafter for any contractor to perform a bituminous paving job on any of the city's streets with material not up to standard. The order sent out reads:

"In future, notice of receipt of lots or shipments of asphaltum or other bituminous material intended for use in the laying of street pavements shall be immediately given to the chief of the bureau of standards, of the Department of Public Works, in order that he may take samples of such material for test.

"Unless these samples show satisfactory test, permission will not be granted to use this material in street improvements."

HYGIENE EXHIBIT IS MOVED

Hundreds Visit Educational Display on Third Street.

The exhibit of the Oregon Social Hygiene Society, in its new location at 111 Third street, between Washington and Stark, is attracting hundreds of visitors daily.

With scarcely an exception, those seeing it voice their approval, many saying that education along these lines should have been started years ago.

An Eastern newspaperman commented as follows: "The work of the Oregon Social Hygiene Society is along the right line. It's criminal to neglect the child's instruction in these matters as we have done in the past."

The exhibit is open each day from 10 A. M. to 10 P. M. It will be open Sunday the same hours for the benefit of those otherwise not able to attend.

AUDITOR BARBUR RETURNS

City Official Brings Back Tan and Clam Bite From Beach.

Brown as can be, City Auditor Barbur returned to his desk in the City Hall yesterday after a ten-day vacation at coast resorts. During his absence Deputy Gill has been in charge of the office. Mr. Barbur found his desk covered with matter awaiting his attention, and plunged into work with a will, but not until after he had delivered himself of a bit of sarcasm aimed at Summer resorts.

"You see, I was pretty lucky during this outing," he vouchsafed, unlocking his desk. "I brought back something which is doing prety well, I think. In fact I brought back two things from the coast that I didn't have when I went there, my tan complexion and, look here, I got this away from 'em, too."

Here the auditor exhibited a sore finger.

"A clam bite," he explained.

BOYS ARE TAUGHT TO SWIM

Free Instruction at Eugene Y. M. C. A. Is Factor Against Drownings.

EUGENE, Or., Aug. 22.—(Special.)—In an effort to teach every boy in Eugene to swim the city Y. M. C. A. has opened its tank to members and nonmembers, and has offered to instruct without cost every small boy in the city. This is the third year such an offer has been made, and the result has been that since the establishment of the Eugene Y. M. C. A. in 1908 only one drowning has occurred among Eugene boys, and this one was almost rescued by a Y. M. C. A. youngster.

Swimming was offered to the school boys last Winter, when a contest was established between the several grade buildings for the greatest number of swimmers. A surprisingly large percentage of the boys in the city have learned to swim in this manner. A census will be taken this Fall.

G. D. LEE STARTS AGENCY

Successful Advertising Man Will Launch New Enterprise.

Under the name of the George D. Lee Advertising Agency, a new advertising service is to be established in Portland. Mr. Lee was for a long time associated with the Hyskell agency, and will continue his headquarters with that agency, using the facilities of the office for caring for the details of the business. This arrangement leaves Mr. Lee free to devote his entire time to the interests of his clients, including those cared for under his direction while more closely associated with the Hyskell agency.

Mr. Lee has been in active advertising work for 25 years, and has been identified with many of the most successful advertising campaigns undertaken in this city. The amount of work undertaken in his new agency will be limited to the capacity of his personal attention.
