Initiative Petition Seeks Amendment of Public Welfare Law

Salem, March 24.—(AP)—Preliminary initiative petition seeking to amend public welfare laws was filed with the state department today by Old-Age Beneficiaries, Inc., Portland, of which L. H. Montgomery is president.

The measure would make the following changes:

It would repeal the section making a husband, wife, parent, son or daughter liable for support of a person otherwise eligible to receive old age assistance.

The state public welfare commission would consist of seven persons, not more than one member from one county. The law now permits more than one from a county.

The state public welfare commission would lose its authority to appoint an administrator.

County public welfare commissions would consist of the three members of each county court. These commissions now consist of the county court plus four citizens appointed by the governor.

FOUR FILE PRECINCT COMMITTE CANDIDACY

Four precinct committee filings, all Republicans, were placed with the county clerk yesterday, as follows:

Grace Blasing, South Central; Guy Tex, North Central Point; O. M. Knox, North Jacksonville and Nellie W. Fick, South Jacksonville.
