TWO U. S. VESSELS SENT TO BOTTOM

Norfolk, Va., Apr'l 16.—(AP)—Enemy submarines sent torpedoes smashing into two American merchantmen off the Atlantic coast April 9, sinking one and leaving the other broken in half and partly submerged, but 63 of the 66 aboard the vessels were rescued.

The fifth naval district, in announcing the attacks today, reported that 35 survivors of one of the ships, a medium sized vessel, were picked up an hour and a half after a single torpedo set her afire and broke her back, and were landed at Morhead City, N. C.

Twenty-eight survivors of the other torpedoing, which occurred early on the morning of April 9, were rescued from a single lifeboat after being adrift six hours.
