Mightiest Waterfall Thunders Down Face Of Grand Coulee Dam

Grand Coulee, Wash., June 2 —(AP)—The mightiest waterfall in North America thundered today down the concrete face of mammoth Grand Coulee dam.

The water started roaring out its tribute to American engineering genius as the miracle men pushed buttons and operated valves late yesterday deep in the heart of the concrete mass.

The torrent sweeping over the face of the dam that was eight years a-building is a third of a mile wide and the height of a 31-story building. It carries approximately the same volume of water as Niagara Falls from nearly twice the height.

The cascade was started by the gradual closing of the 20 big eight-foot outlet tubes through the solid concrete and the opening of the spillway gates at the top.

WED IN RENO

Reno, June 2 (AP)—Marriage licenses issued here included: Walter F. Clevenger, 23, Klamath Falls, and Betty Wimer, 18, Ashland; M. J. Clayton, 21, and Maravene Ownbey, 20, both Grants Pass.

"The Tuttles of Tahiti" New Show

The incredible Tuttles come to the Craterian theatre tomorrow for a four-day run in the adventure comedy, "The Tuttles of Tahiti," starring Charles Laughton as the lazy, prolific ne'er-do-well, enjoying an easy-going life in the south seas with his daughter, Peggy Drake. The thriftless, temperamental Tuttles romp against the colorful background, figure in a dozen irresponsible adventures ranging from cock fights to weddings, from dancing sprees to bouts with typoons.

A new Donald Duck cartoon in technicolor, "Chef Donald," will be an added attraction.

Mystery Stars

Joseph Allen, Jr. and Mary Howard face a tense mystery situation in "Who Is Hope Schuyler?", coming to the Holly theatre for tomorrow night and Thursday night only only as the added mystery hit with "No Hands on the Clock," starring Chester Morris and Jean Parker.

MANY OREGONIANS CANNOT PROVE IT

Washington, June 2.—(AP)—Approximately 260,000 native Oregonians do not have birth registration certificates, the federal census bureau said today.

The largest group of the unregistered, about 140,000, is between 20 and 44, the ages from which almost all workers in war industries must be recruited.

The necessity of proving citizenship has boosted the demand for transcripts of certificates, and the census bureau said that when a certificate is not on file, church records, family Bible records or a transcript of census records could be used. The bureau is furnishing transcripts at the rate of 20,000 a week.

Of Oregon's unregistered, 20,000 are under 20 years, 80,000 are from 45 to 64, and 20,000 are 65 and over.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Washington, June 2 (AP)—An Oklahoma statute authorizing the sterilization of habitual criminals was held unconstitutional today by the supreme court on the ground that it classified stealing chickens as a crime and excluded embezzlement.

Gary Cooper and Barbara Stanwyck head the all-star cast with Walter Brennan, Edward Arnold and James Gleason in support.
