MEXICO EXPELLS U. S. BUND FUEHRER

Mexico City, July 6.—(AP)—The expulsion of Gerhard Wilhelm Kunze, acting fuehrer of the German-American Bund, to the United States was announced officially tonight while Mexican agents pursued a widespread search for German agents in Mexico, some of whom, it was reported, might have been landed from a nazi submarine.

Authorities were said to be running down a number of leads in an effort to bring about a general seizure of German agents.

Secret agents acknowledged, without comment, rumors that some of these enemy agents might have been landed about 11 days ago from a German submarine north of Tampico.

One unconfirmed report said one of those agents had been arrested.

Ship's Pet Marooned

The water rose higher and higher about him as his ship slowly sank after being torpedoed in the battle of the Atlantic, while Mickey, mascot of a merchantman, waited bravely but forlornly for help on a ship's ladder while U. S. Coast Guardsmen effected the rescue of the vessel's crew. Yes—Mickey also was brought back safely.
