At Portland—Sacramento-Portland game postponed, hail.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

A freak of Nature—hailstones about the size of ptarmagen, or cuckatoo eggs—put a rather amazing stop to yesterday's Portland-Sacramento Coast League ball game at McCredie Park.

The athletes were in the midst of the second inning, with Portland off to a one-run advantage as a result of hits by Bancroft and Rodgers, when the stage manager sounded the buzzer for Eliza, the bloodhounds and some ice.

He got ice in plenty. The globules descended in sheets and the din on the top of the grandstand sounded like the world's champion snare drummist racing up and down the overture from Wagner's "Tannhauser." Or, like nickels bounding off a Salvation Army base drum on a busy night in Barbary Coast.

Of course, nearly everybody on the playing field did a "Howard Drew" for the nearest shelter, and, after watching the bombardment for 10 to 15 minutes, Umpire Phyle finally stuck his head from retirement and, in an inclement voice, announced to the 300 fans that the game was off.

"Called on account of hail," was Phyle's rather unusual declamation.

To make up for the postponement a double-header will be played Sunday afternoon, the first game starting at 2 o'clock. W. W. McCredie and Harry Wolverton agreed to this last night.

Hi West and Gregory were the opposing pitchers yesterday, but Higginbotham may be called upon this afternoon, with Sailor Stroud not altogether an improbability for the Sacs.

The time is now here to pull that ancient jest about the scouts being on the trail of "Deacon" Van Buren and "Kid" Mohler, of the Sacramento Wolves. Hugo Bezdek, scout for the Pittsburg Pirates, was a spectator at the abbreviated contest yesterday, and has the honor of being the first of the big league reconnoiter brigade to invade these environs.

Scout Bezdek has just finished a highly successful year as athletic director at the University of Oregon and will pass the remainder of the Summer scouring the minor leagues for prospective Pirates.

"I intend finetoothing the Northwestern and Pacific Coast clubs, first," remarked "Bez," en route downtown in J. Richardson's big yellow car. "Perhaps Barney Dreyfuss will want me to look through the Canadian League while I'm out here, but I don't know as to that."

* * *

Dean Walker, retiring graduate manager at Oregon, also was a spectator at the game. Dean is feeling highly jubilant because of Oregon's good fortune in winning three Spring championships.

"Tennis, baseball and track titles is a mighty good record, don't you think?" said Manager Walker.

And then it hailed, the storm descending from the Washington side of the Columbia River.

Matt Hynes, former Portland Colt pitcher, has been bought by Victoria, of the Northwest League. Portland sold him to Cleveland last Fall and the Naps turned him over to Dayton, O.

Hynes achieved considerable fame last year by pitching a no-hit, no-run game.

SEALS SHUT OUT BY VENICE

Fitzgerald Makes Three Hits in Three Chances, Steals Third Twice.

LOS ANGELES, June 4.—Venice made it two straight from San Francisco by defeating the northerners today, 2 to 0. Hits kept the San Francisco hits well scattered, while Fanning's wildness in the seventh inning, when he issued two bases on balls and allowed two hits and a sacrifice, allowed Venice to score twice. Fitzgerald made three hits in three times at bat, and stole third base twice.

OAKS LOSE THIRD TO ANGELS

All Runs in 3-to-2 Game Are Scored in Eighth.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Los Angeles made it three straight from Oakland by winning, 3 to 2, today through slack fielding of the Oaks. All the scoring of the game was done in the eighth.

Los Angeles in its half began to pound out Christian's offerings and slipped over three runs and three hits. When the Oaks came to bat they made a strenuous effort to equal the lead. They got the three hits but only two runs. Oakland made four errors.

Yesterday's Results.

At Baker—North Yakima game postponed on account of circus.
At Pendleton—Walla Walla 6, Pendleton 4.

It didn't rain at Baker Thursday, but a circus was billed to play the town, and as the result the Baker and North Yakima baseball game was called off, while everybody from fans to players took in the tented attraction. A two-ringed game will be played Sunday instead. Walla Walla and Pendleton provided their own circus, Walla Walla doing the great wonder act, winning a game, 6 to 4, on two hits, whereas the Buckaroos got 10.

Three errors in the fifth inning cost the game for Pendleton, marring Schroeder's two-hit game. Schroeder allowed a double, walked one and a bunt and Schroeder's error put one Bear over. With two down, Schroeder got nervous and hit Childers, filling the bases. Varian let Johnson's high fly drop and the batter kept on until he scored, chasing three ahead of him. Coen relayed the ball home, but his sights were too high, the ball going into the stand.

In the seventh, the Bears got their only earned run, a homer hit by Lundstrom. A wild and two hits gave Pendleton two in the third and four hits in the fifth brought two. In the eighth Pendleton had a chance, but Johnson's circus catch of Fitchner's hot one with two on stopped them.

The score:

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 4.—Portland had two good innings, overcame a four-run lead which the champions took in the first inning off Brown, and defeated Vancouver today, 6 to 4. Hall went to pieces in the sixth, after having had a sad encounter in the fourth, and in each the Colts gathered three runs. Harstad allowed only one hit in the last three innings.

Nick Williams was chased off the field for disputing a decision in the latter part of the game, and Hausman went in to play first, after Nick had been at bat three times without a hit. Hausman hit safely in his only trip to the plate.

The fans had another opportunity to see Callahan, the Portland pitcher, play baseball today, although the versatile player put the silencer on Vancouver in the first game yesterday, defeating them in a sensationally pitched game. He went into right field today and took a couple of tricky flies, and then came to bat and walloped out a hit.

Roy Brown looks better all the time. He allowed Vancouver seven hits, but they were scattered enough. His first inning was his only bad one, and the fact that his teammates stumbled behind him frequently didn't seem to bother him after he settled down. Likewise he showed good work at bat, getting one of the three doubles of the day. Brown struck out three, and had his arm in control, giving no passes, although he did "bean" two in using his perilous "spitter." Score:

CURB ON GAYETY THREAT

ADMIRAL METSCHAN TO PRESERVE ORDER AT ASTORIA REGATTA.

Various Pains and Penalties to Be Inflicted on Wrongdoers by Marine "Judge" Reames.

No more will Portland's best citizens, garbed in the official uniform of the Astoria regatta, be allowed to tear up the town and all its possessions and "get away with it."

Admiral Phil Metschan, Jr., announced yesterday that United States District Attorney Reames will go to Astoria with the staff of uniformed officers and will hold martial court every morning, regardless of weather or pressure or more active duties about the inner works of the flagship.

Formerly anybody with a uniform could go down the street at 3 G. M. and sing his loudest. When he was through he was through and no one said a word. This year he will be haled before the marine judge, or whatever a judge at sea is called, and he is liable to be ordered to do the stunt right over again.

Anyone in the town not having a good time will be haled before Judge Reames and may have to take a trip over the plank, ending in a search for bottom in the vicinity of Sand Island.

It will go hard with any who try to alter their appearance so that they will be unrecognizable during the stay down at the mouth of the Columbia. This order is issued because Commodore Boost appeared at the last regatta without his mustache.
