Escapee Recognized; Returned to Prison

Anniston, Ala.—(U.P.)—A sheriff remembered the days of his youth, so Russell Cobb went back to jail.

When Cobb showed up to pay a fine at Anniston, Sheriff A. A. Pate recognized him as one of his playmates when he was a child in Calhoun County.

Pate also remembered receiving a "wanted poster" on Cobb. Cobb was returned to prison to finish out a sentence from which he was paroled several years before.
