Around Hollywood

Hollywood — (UP) — Walt Disney is wrapping up a completely new book for "Disneyland" on television this fall, from filmed scenes of a real expedition at the South Pole to a new adventure character to replace Davy Crockett.

Following Davy was a problem, but Disney thinks he has another hit in a new series called "Johnny Tremaine." The genial cartoon king who's become one of TV's top producers now is testing teenage boys in a talent search for an actor to portray Johnny.

The new character, unlike Crockett, is pure fiction. But his adventures will be historical. Johnny is an apprentice silversmith in Revolutionary War days who joins the Sons of Liberty and becomes involved in Paul Revere's ride and the Boston Tea Party.

Two Hour Shows Set

Disney is spending $700,000 for two hour-long shows on Johnny with the hope that tricorner hats will replace coonskin caps with the small fry.

"The trouble was Davy set such a pace that first year," sighed Disney. "People say, what's the matter, no new Crockett? I've gone through this before. After 'The Three Little Pig' and 'Snow White' everything I made was compared to them. I got so I hated 'Snow White'."

In addition to Johnny Tremaine, "Disneyland" will feature a series called "Operation Deep Freeze" showing an expedition currently at the South Pole. Disney sent a camera crew to the wasteland last December and the cameramen have been frozen in since March. More film will be flown to Hollywood in early October in time for the TV season.

Geophysics Recognized

"The year 1957 has been designated around the world as 'Geophysical Year,' so this show will fit that theme," Disney explained. "We'll also have a cartoon series called 'Our Friend, The Atom,' on the potentials of atomic energy for peacetime use.

In addition, he'll continue his daily program, "The Mickey Mouse Club."

"You've always got to give them something exciting," he concluded. "You've got to keep swinging, and try different things."

O&C, Coos Bay Wagon Road Timber Sales $25,024,063

Portland — (U.P.) — Virgil T. Heath, Oregon State Supervisor, said yesterday that timber sales from O & C and Coos Bay Wagon road lands under the supervision of the Bureau of Land management amounted to $25,024,063 in fiscal 1956.

The volume totaled 664,835,000 board feet in 947 sales during the year. This represents an increase of $6,683,466 value over 1955 sales when the volume was 644,729,000 board feet.

Heath said the average price per thousand board feet increased from $28.45 in fiscal year 1955 to $37.64 in fiscal 1956.

The Coos Bay district accounted for the greatest volume of timber, 149,453,000 board feet, but the Roseburg district, where 138,986,000 board feet was sold, accounted for the highest total value, $5,389,000.

Of the total timber sold from these lands there were 337 sales of salvage timber with a volume of 228,384,000 board feet and a value of $8,793,837. The Eugene and Coos Bay districts alone of the five marketing areas accounted for $5,893,216 of the total salvage sales. Heath said the 27,993,000 board feet valued at $792,942 was sold from Oregon public domain lands under the supervision of the Bureau of Land Management.

Arson Investigators Study The Dalles Fires

The Dalles—(U.P.)—Arson investigators arrived here yesterday to probe a series of recent fires in an attempt to determine their origin.

Two fires in apartment hotels here and two other downtown fires last week end prompted the call for the investigators.

No injuries were reported in any of the blazes.
