WEDDING BELLS SOON WILL RING again for Porfirio Rubirosa, four-times divorced Dominican diplomat, according to Paris reports. Latest altar candidate is Odile Robin, 19, who affects leather trousers. (International)

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS

Minneapolis, Minn.—President Eisenhower on the farm economy under his policies of flexible price supports:

"Clearly we are over the hump. I believe that . . . the future in agriculture looks better — more promising and more dependable—than at any time in this generation."

New York—Sen. Estes Kefauver charging President Eisenhower was responsible for the "Republican gallery of broken promises":

"Under the Eisenhower-Nixon team, the national debt went up $13 billion, despite the continuance of high taxes for most of us."

Memphis, Tenn.—William Richardson, 28, to cafe patrons before he started shooting holes in empty beer cans in time with juke box music:

"We are going to have a nice, quiet little session."

San Francisco—Col Clarence M. Young, executive vice president of Pan American Airways, on the decision of pilot Richard Ogg to crash-land his Stratoclipper in the Pacific ocean:

"The captain's decision to circle the weather ship until daylight and then land alongside was made with the safety of the passengers as the first consideration."

New York—Dr. Enoch A. Holtwick, the Prohibition party's presidential candidate, on the evils of drink:

"A sober workman is more valuable than one who appears on Monday with a hangover if, indeed, he appears at all."

McLoughlin Students Tour Mail Tribune

Journalism students from McLoughlin Junior High school visited the Mail Tribune Tuesday afternoon.

Included in the group were Mrs. Dorothy Sutter, teacher; Jim Kubalek, Sharen Tepovac, Bill Allen, Joel Gregory, Donald Eames, David Ryn, Michael Gardner, Elgan Cook, Nancy Breeze, Bob Baker, Lauren Stayton, Patty Shorey, Maureen Schultz, Loretta Turman, and Danny Coffin.

Also Kathie McCay, Jewell Forbes, Virginia Thomasson, Dorina Fraysher, Dennis McGee, Tommy Ashton, Janice Butts, Deanna Russell, Sandra Powers, Wayne Thompson, Sharon O'Connors, Martin Davis and Mark McQueen.

West Point, Miss.—(U.P.)—Mrs. J. A. Phelps thinks Oct. 13 is a lucky date. Last Nov. 17 her dog gave birth to a litter of 17 puppies. On Oct. 13, the dog produced 13 more. "Thank goodness, it wasn't the 30th of the month," Mrs. Phelps said.
