Marion county has again made the same kind of abbreviated assessment books as have been used for the past two years, causing the state board of equalization considerable trouble.

The seventh annual reunion of the Southern Oregon Soldiers' and Sailors' Association began Monday at Medford. There were about 75 tents erected on the grounds, with a large attendance.

Dr. J. W. Watts, of Lafayette, was run into by a special on the Southern Pacific road, while driving in a buggy. The horse was killed, the buggy demolished and the doctor badly bruised.
